REPORTED DEMONSTRATION, WASHINGTON, D. C.,
1/31/67 - 2/1/67 BY ORGANIZATION KNOWN AS
"CLERGYMEN AND LAYMEN CONCERNED ABOUT VIETNAM"
INFORMATION CONCERNING
(INTERNAL SECURITY)

On 1/18/67 LAWRENCE C. REIMER, Special Agent, 109th Intelligence Corps Group, Norfolk, Va., requested to know if Norfolk Office, FBI, had any information on a demonstration to be held in Washington, D. C., on 1/31 and 2/1/67.

Mr. REIMER indicated their INTC superiors reported that a group known as "Clergyman and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam" had received a permit from the Park Service (probably Washington, D. C.) to demonstrate at the White House on 1/31/67 and 2/1/67. According to report, approximately 2,000 were expected to be on hand for the demonstration.

Norfolk has received no previous information on this proposed demonstration; however, logical sources will be contacted and, if information bearing on this matter is obtained, the Bureau and interested offices will be advised.

On August 6, 1945, Hiroshima suffered the horror of the first atomic bomb. Twenty-two years later, on August 6, 1967, we will gather in Atlanta to protest the war in Vietnam. It is fitting that we meet on Hiroshima Day to demand an end to this immoral and illegal war, especially since each escalation in Vietnam brings us closer to a nuclear holocaust. Today's hydrogen bomb is 200 times more destructive than the bomb which obliterated Hiroshima; and many nations now stock-pile this terrible weapon. We must learn to avoid war or face annihilation.

A growing number of Americans from all walks of life oppose the war in Vietnam. On April 15 almost half a million of them marched in New York City, and in Atlanta and 144 other cities concerned citizens stand each week in silent vigil to protest the war. We differ in our reasons for opposing the Vietnam war. Some of us oppose it as militarily unsound. A growing number of us, both black and white believe it to be a racist war of genocide and that the U.S. gover[illegible] ment is again showing a contempt for Asians in its cruel and inhuman weapons never employed in Europe. Some of us feel that American claims of defending democracy are hypocritical and that instead U.S. troops are defending American business investments. Others see that the Vietnam war has undermined the anti-poverty program.

The children of Mississippi, the slum-dwellers of New York, the unemployed of Appalachia, the poor of Vine City, and the napalmed children of Vietnam are all victims of the war in Asia. All of us are united in opposing this unjust war. We believe that we can best supp[illegible] efforts of peace by bringing the troops home now.

Mr.J.Edgar Hoover,Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington,D.C.

Dear Mr.Hoover,

The enclosed letter, "Clergy & Laymen Concerned about Viet Nam", was just received by me, along with a bibliography of propaganda material against our government's policy in Viet Nam. The latter I'm sending to President Johnson with an expression of my strong endorsement of his policy...and my hope that he will become more of a hawk!

You will note that your old pal, Martin Luther King, is one of the big shots in this national committee,"C.A.L.C.A.V.N.". Recalling your statement concerning said King's being a liar,I can support your opinion by my own observation of his conduct in New York City back in 1964. He made statements at that time which were not true. He may not have known any better but he had had the opportunity to know and he SHOULD HAVE KNOWN. He took the word of such men as Adam Clayton Powell as gospel without making an investigation of his own....or else he deliberately lied.

Judging by statements made in the U.N. and elsewhere by Communist leaders,their Arab stooges,etc. recently the BIG LIE is a major part of their method.

REC 54 62-0-70542

EX-PROC.

I hope that you already received material such as the enclosed and that you have investigated possible alien and traitorous elements. Please send me any information that is available for my own guidance. The tragedy is that most of us are too busy or too much afraid of dirty work from the liberals to do much. I myself am very much PERSONA NON GRATA among many Baptist leaders because of my views on certain aspects of the Civil Rights movement (Rev.Virgil Wood in Boston, school bussing, Stoakley Carmichael,etc.), also because of my support for the war in Viet Nam.

18 JUN 30 1967

Isn't it possible to have clear-cut correction of many of the false statements made in these various publications,such as the one Senator Gruening"wrote"into the Congr.Record in May? (rea I mean a direct, item-by-item correction, with references to sources AND A CLEAR DESCRIPTION OF THE CONNECTION BETWEEN SO MANY OF THESE STATEMENTS AND COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. So many people employed in the news media,etc., have been under Communist influence, if not actually Communist themselves,FOR MORE THAN THIRTY YEARS to MY OWN knowledge, that its hard to know what one can trust. TO: NEW CONSTITUENCY
FROM: Reverend Richard R. Fernandez

This is the first newsletter that you have received from our National Committee. We enclose a resume of our last year's activities and action programs as well as our position paper. there is anything that you would like from our bibliography(en please do not hesitate to write this office. If there is any we can help you or a group that you're in with regards to Viet do not hesitate to call on us.

1. On April 11 Dr. Martin Luther King accepted a position as co-chairman of our National Committee on the invitation of our Executive Committee. Although Dr. King has in recent days rec quite a bit of static from different segments of the American tablishment with regards to his speech given at Riverside Chur in New York City (sponsored by our National Committee), we fee that it is even more important that he accepted our invitation a National Co-Chairman. It is very clear that many persons in power in this country see Dr. King as an exceedingly "credible" person in the peace movement and have gone to great lengths to to contain him, impugn his motives, and in many other ways, ma him. We welcome Dr. King as a co-chairman and trust that the few months will see our working relationship becoming a lot cl In the near future you will receive a pamphlet containing spee by Dr. King, Dr. Henry Steele Commager, Rabbi Abraham Heschel, and Dr. John C. Bennett, with a forward by Dr. Reinhold Niebuh

2. Vietnam Summer.

You should know that our National Committee is cooperating wit faculty and student groups across the country in "Vietnam Summ This is an attempt to awaken the American conscience at a gras roots level on the issue of Vietnam. This summer is strategic if effective pressure is going to be brought upon the present Administration to de-escalate the war, get into a negotiating situation, and eventually see the United States' military prese in Vietnam withdrawn. We will be working through various area and regional contact people that we have across the country and would ask that persons interested in more information on this project write either this office or: New Politics for Peace in Vietnam, P.O. Box 114, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 02140.

3. Vietnam: Crisis of Conscience.

The last week in May will see the publication of Vietnam:

Crisis of Conscience, written by Dr. Robert McAfee Brown, Dr. Michael Novak, and Rabbi Abraham Heschel. This book is to be slightly more than 120 pages in length and is being published by Protestant, Jewish, and Catholic publishing houses. If you know of summer conferences where the book might be utilized or even early fall conferences that might be suitable for use of this book, I would suggest that you would write for early orders to: Association Press, 291 Broadway, New York, New York. You should also know that this book will be available at bookstores across the country (particularly religious bookstores).

4. Study on Violation of International Law by U.S. Government.

Within six weeks we will have a five-month-old study completed on the way in which our country has violated international law at several different points in Vietnam. We intend to appeal to the Vatican, the World Council of Churches, and the International Red Cross to conduct a similar study with regard to any infractions of international law that the North Vietnamese might be guilty of. The study is an attempt to suggest that the United States has violated international law as a matter of policy, and we, as persons concerned with the whole question of constrai will ask our government to desist.

5. Selective objection.

Dr. Robert McAfee Brown from our National Committee was in Denver a few weeks ago to serve as a witness for Lt. Henry Howe. The officer is a selective conscientiou objector to this war and Dr. Brown has made the trip to Denver to testify in his behalf at the request of the American Civil Liberties Union. The whole issue of selective objection is one in which we are deeply concerned and I trust that if there is any way in which we can help local groups raise this issue more effective with young men with whom they have contact who are exposed to the military service that you'll not hesitate to write this office for such guidance as we might be able to give.

6. Position paper.

You should know that the position paper developed at the Washington Mobilization has now left this office in more than 100,000 copies. Also, we know of at least nine major newspapers across the country where the article has been printed in full by local committees. We still have quantities of the position paper availabl if any of you have not yet ordered it and would need any copies.

7. "Negotiations Now!"

Our National Committee supports a move by several different groups to collect over a million signatures which, in effect, support U Thant's three-point peace proposa For more information regarding "Negotiations Now!" you should direct your inquirie to Rev. Rodney Shaw, The Methodist Building, 100 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington D.C., or Mr. Donald Keys, SANE, 17 East 45th Street, New York, New York.

8. Akron Beacon Journal article.

Enclosed you will find the Akron Beacon Journal article as well as an editorial from that paper which we send to you for whatever use you may have for it. We think that this letter is similar to many letters received by parents of GI's who are presently fighting in Vietnam. You will note that this reprint is available from our office here in New York in quantities.

9. Literature distribution.

We lay very heavy emphasis on public education and for that reason we have become a major literature distribution point for peace groups throughout the country. In the last four and a half months, we have sent from this office a quarter of a milli pieces of literature of the Viet Nam war. In addition to that, since November of last year, we have sold 9,000 copies of Dorothy Dunbar Bromley's book, Washington and Vietnam. We believe that this kind of public education needs to happen not only at a national level but on a local level where many of you reside as well.

10. Mailing list.

If by chance you are getting duplicate mailings please let us know. Also, if you know of persons whom you know might be interested in being placed on our mailing list let us know.

11. Coffin's letter of April 7.

If you've not yet taken time to respond to Bill Coffin's call for funds please think seriously about it before the summer.

12. Local action.

We believe that it is very important for both individuals and local groups of clergy and laymen to press their representatives in both Houses of Congress to subscribe to the following points:

1. They will not support a land invasion of North Viet Nam for whatever reasons the Administration might give.
2. They will not support any use of nuclear weapons.
3. They will not support mining of Haiphong Harbor nor the bombing of Haiphong for any reason.
4. They will not force a confrontation with China, either by air or ground operations.
5. They will not support indiscriminate terror bombing of North Viet Nam if and when it should occur.

We believe that groups of clergy and laymen ought to write and visit their elected representatives to get them to agree to these points as a minimal contribution to preventing an even greater political, military, and human blunder.

Dear [redacted]

Your letter of June 26th, with enclosure, has been received and I appreciate your thoughtfulness in furnishing me the information. Your prayers and expressions of confidence in my work serve as a source of encouragement.

In response to your questions regarding refutation of comments made in various publications, information in our files must be maintained as confidential pursuant to regulations of the Department of Justice. I know you will understand the reason for this policy and I can assure you this Bureau will continue to make every effort to discharge its responsibilities with the highest degree of thoroughness and dispatch.

CIESIELSKI appeared in a television interview, which took place on WTAR-TV, Norfolk, Va., and indicated that it was possible for individuals to declare themselves as conscientious objectors, thereby preventing themselves from being made combatants. CIESIELSKI said that both civilians and members of the military can be conscientious objectors. CIESIELSKI did not identify himself on the TV program as being connected with the military, and he was dressed in civilian clothes at the time.

Just look at a few facts: the North American Defense Headquarters bored a hole in a solid rock mountain in Colorado, one of the few such places in the U.S. With 7000 feet of solid stone around them, they dug a cave, then built heavy buildings set on huge springs so they could withstand shaking. The doors are solid steel in multiple echelons. And even with all this, they don't know that their mountain will be safe.

Peace Groups Protest CD Drills in Schools

By NICHOLAS W. STROH
Of The Bulletin Staff

A number of peace groups have complained that school Civil Defense drills tend to "whip up a war psychology" and a "hate communism" campaign.

Leaders of the peace groups, objecting to tomorrow's scheduled CD drills in city schools, asked Schools Superintendent Mark R. Shedd for a meeting to discuss the issue. Dr. Shedd arranged for a meeting later today with an aide.

The groups, which include Women Strike for Peace and the Friends Peace Committee, also criticized Mayor Tate for proclaiming Civil Defense Week, which began yesterday and runs through Friday.

Letter to Board

A letter written by George C. Hardin, executive secretary of the Quaker group, was hand-delivered late last week to the School Administration Building, 21st st. and the Parkway. It read in part:

"All of us are troubled by this rebirth of Civil Defense drills.

"Fire drills are one thing and we don't object to them, but Civil Defense drills, often misused to whip up a war psychology or a hate communism campaign, have been consistently objectionable."

The letter recalled posters publicizing Civil Defense in past years. There have been no official Civil Defense observances here since 1962.

"The picture of a few years ago," the letter said, "of little children crawling under their desks and pulling their sweaters over their faces . . . is one we don't like."

Other Groups Involved

The other peace groups which endorsed the letter are: the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, the local chapter of the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam, Veterans for Peace In Vietnam and the Committee for Nonviolent Action.

Spokesmen said all the groups will participate next Saturday in an antiwar rally in Washington sponsored by the National Mobilization Committee to end the war in Vietnam.

One of the signers of the letter is the Rev. David M. Gracie, urban missioner for the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. As he passed out pamphlets at the corner of Broad and Chestnut sts. yesterday, he explained his personal views on Civil Defense.

Calls Drills 'Grisly'

"I'm offended by the expenditure of money for Civil Defense, which really is no defense. And I'm particularly offended because my three children will have to go through the Civil Defense drills Wednesday. I think it's rather grisly."

Father Gracie said he assumed his duties in Philadelphia late last summer and has been an activist in the peace movement since the first sharp U. S. escalations of military pressure in 1965.

Father Gracie, a parish priest formerly attached to an inner-city church in Detroit, said he has children aged ten, seven and five who attend school in Germantown.

Draft Alternatives

Last spring, these same peace organizations circulated pamphlets throughout the city's high schools, attempting to show draft-age students the legal alternatives to military service.

They met with school officials in June to ask for the opportunity to share the speakers' platform with recruiters from the armed services who visit schools on Armed Forces Day.

"We have never heard from the school board about this situation," Hardin said in an interview yesterday. "We didn't want equal time exactly, only an equal attitude and an equal opportunity."

He recalled that peace groups have spoken to students in the past and have been jeered by veterans' organizations which had also been asked to attend.

STOP THE DRAFT WEEK, OCTOBER 16 - 17, 1967

Special Agents of the FBI observed on October 16, 1967, from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. a demonstration and rally at Independence Hall Park, 6th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., sponsored by PADU and supported by the Philadelphia Area Vietnam Committee (Vietnam Summer), Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam, Women Strike for Peace (WSP), Philadelphia Mobilization Committee, and Veterans for Peace in Vietnam. Among those identified were members of the Communist Party (CP), the W. E. B. Du Bois Club of America (DCA), Philadelphia Young Socialist Alliance (PYSA), WSP, Peace Committee, Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA), Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), PADU, and others. Present were also a large number of unidentified "hippie types" for a total of about 300 people.

A loud-speaker was set up on a platform, and Gordon Fels of PADU was master of ceremonies. Speakers who generally condemned United States activities in Vietnam as immoral, illegal, unjust, and who were in support of those refusing to fight were as follows:

Rev. David Gracie, Episcopal Diocese of Philadelphia, who said he had previously counseled young men to avoid the draft, but to be careful not to violate the law, but now he feels that the tax laws and Selective Service laws or any laws that supported the war should not be obeyed. He said the United States has as its purpose the domination of Asia, and the United States would not be fighting if they were not fighting a colored people. He congratulated the young men who had the courage to refuse to cooperate.

Thompson Bradley, Professor, Swarthmore College, said that the poor, the uneducated, and the displaced are those who are sent to Vietnam. He said the real heroes are those who refuse to go, and "we" will go to jail with them. He said the draftees are forced to brutalize, burn, and destroy the culture of Vietnam.

Ethel Taylor, Coordinator of Philadelphia WSP, stated that those who refused to go should be supported and that she would rather be a draft dodger than a murderer.

At this time Fred Moore spoke and identified himself as one who has previously served a prison term for refusing to obey the draft. He stated that he was interrupting the rally to report that one of the group, Jim Hart, had been arrested by the police for no reason and that Gregg Carlson had stood in front of the patrol wagon and was likewise arrested and taken away. Moore urged that those present stand together in the event of similar arrests and that they let no one else be taken away from the rally.

Bob Heisler, National Educational Director of DCA, spoke on the Ronald Lockman Case. Lockman is a Philadelphia soldier who was previously affiliated with the DCA who refused to fight in Vietnam. He said the DCA will support all soldiers like Lockman who refused to go to Vietnam. He said soldiers like Lockman speak for all of us.

Fred (Wilfred) Batchelder, Head of the Veterans and Reservists for Peace in Vietnam, said that he was in World War II, and he made his decision then and now these boys have made their decision and have refused to go. He admired them for their courage and pledged support to those who have guts enough to say "Hell no, I won't go."

Daniel Silverman, Organizer of The Resistance in Philadelphia, stated that "we" must resist the draft. We must reach those with money and influence. We must change the attitude of the people from apathy to action. He said he would refuse to carry Selective Service cards, refuse to cooperate with the draft, and would help others who would do likewise.

Those who said they were sending back their draft cards to Selective Service and who made a brief statement were as follows:

STOP THE DRAFT WEEK,
OCTOBER 16 - 21, 1967

David Maxwell, white male, age 21, 2-F or 2-S, who said he could no longer cooperate with the system.

Bob Green, white male, who stated that war is morally wrong and that he could not cooperate with the draft. He said he rejects Selective Service and paying taxes.

William Schauman, 36-107-45-421, said he thought this (the rally) was really great.

Tony Avirgan said he had come to the conclusion that war is wrong and that he must actively do everything he can do to make sure there is no more killing.

Richard Sloat who said he was 1-Y.

Richard T. Williams, Negro male, said he was surprised and embarrassed by one thing - he did not see enough of his black brothers here. He said there a lot of his black brothers over there, and he wanted to see more here. He then asked for matches. He was joined by one Negro and one white youth (Frank Femia) and burned what appeared to be their draft cards before the audience.

Jerry D. Coffin, white male, stated that like my brothers just did today, I am going to destroy my card because I can't in any way cooperate with the Selective Service. He then read a prepared statement, a copy of which follows:

PUBLIC STATEMENT OF SELECTIVE SERVICE DIS-AFFILIATION

Delivered: October 16, 1967, Independence Hall
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

CONFIDENTIAL

Today I am making public my total disaffiliation with the so-called Selective Service System. I wish to make it perfectly clear that I do not recognize the Selective Service System as having any moral or legal control over my person.

I will not now or ever allow myself to be conscripted, indoctrinated, or trained to kill my brothers and sisters.

I will not now or ever allow myself to be directed, influenced or deferred by a system designed to brutalize the spirit of men by forcing them into servitude in agencies designed for mass murder.

I will not now or ever carry on my person or maintain in my possession any card or document that states I am registered with, or deferred by, any agency of conscription.

Further:

I counsel all of you to do as I am doing. Repudiate and refuse to cooperate with the so-called Selective Service System. And I will aid anyone who does so.

I willfully will cause or attempt to cause, any man now imprisoned in the Military forces of the United States, to refuse all duty, and to be disloyal to the system that is being disloyal to his spirit, and I will distribute literature to that effect.

123689

I urge all military personnel to desert the agencies that are brutalizing you. I will aid, harbor, conceal and protect all deserters who come to me.

[redacted]

I urge all arsenal and armory workers to quit and no longer produce the machines and materials that maim, burn and destroy humanity.

CONFIDENTIAL

This total dis-affiliation with the immoral and unjust system of conscription and public breaking of related immoral and unjust laws is the result of my religious belief in the sanctity of the human spirit. I cannot participate in any way, with any agency that brutalizes this sacred spirit. Nor can I help but urge all my brothers and sisters to resist those forces of totalitarianism that are evidenced in the Military Selective Service Act of 1967 and all related laws.

I am a Quaker. My action today is in keeping with the historic testimonies of Quakers everywhere.

When the Laws of God, as interpreted through my conscience, conflict with the laws of men, I have no choice but to follow the laws of God.

Jerry Coffin then burned his Selective Service Registration card and two classification cards. Joining in the card burning were John Mark Blawn (phonetic) who burned a card, and Dave Sinex who burned his induction notice and yelled, "Burn baby burn" as the audience applauded.

Others who spoke briefly against the draft and the war were Bob Antipin; an unknown white male who said he was 1-A and would not go; Fred Moore who spent 17 months in Allenwood Prison for refusing induction; and Gordon Fels, master of ceremonies, who announced another rally at the Armed Forces Induction Center, 401 North Street, Philadelphia, Pa., on Thursday at 7 a.m., October 19, 1967.

Immediately following the rally, small anti-draft certificates were turned in to Ethel Taylor and Thompson Bradley together with about 21 draft cards. Bradley said the draft cards and the anti-draft certificates would be taken to the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C., on October 20, 1967. Bradley said the petition of non-cooperation bearing most of the names of those turning in their draft cards would be mailed to General H. M. Gross, Box 1921, Harrisburg, Pa., the same day. (As will be set forth later, the draft cards and the anti-draft certificates were also mailed to General Gross.)

After the rally, the turning in of their draft cards and certificates, and the mailing of same, a group of about 100 demonstrators went to the Philadelphia Police Department at 8th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., and demonstrated from about 5:50 to 6:55 p.m. protesting the arrest of the two demonstrators. At this time most of the demonstrators departed; however, according to news sources, several stayed around until about 10:15 p.m.

The above information was furnished to Assistant U. S. Attorney Robert St. Leger Goggin of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa., who advised that he would consider prosecution against all who burned draft cards, as well as those who turned in their draft cards for referral to

Statement to the Press

For immediate release:

Today, Monday, October 16th, numbers of draft-age men in Philadelphia will publicly return their draft cards at a demonstration at 4 PM, Independence Hall. Their action of severing all connections with the Selective Service System is taken in direct response to the dictates of their consciences. They will become members of The Resistance, a nation-wide movement of non-cooperation whose object is to create a higher level of protest against the War in Vietnam and conscription. The demonstration on Monday, sponsored by the Philadelphia Anti-Draft Union, forms part of Draft Resistance Week featuring a march through center city, a rally at 401 N.Broad Induction Station, leafletting of high schools, and visits to local draft boards. Speaking at the Independence Hall rally will be: Rev. David M. Gracie (Urban Missioner, Episcopalian Church), Thompson Bradley (Professor at Swarthmore College), Ethel Taylor (Coordinator, Women Strike for Peace), Carolyn Black (W.E.B. DuBois Club), and Daniel Silverman (Philadelphia Resistance). The returned draft cards will be forwarded to U.S. Senator Hugh Scott, of Pennsylvania.

THE RESISTANCE - OCT 16

On October 16, thousands of young men all across the nation will cease to cooperate with the Selective Service System and the draft. Our complicity will no loger legitimatize the draft and the monstrous war of genocide which our nation wages in Vietnam. United, we will resist the war machinery which feeds on our silence, on our fear, on our division. Each one of us will begin to free himself. Our collective act of resistance will begin to free America and the people of Vietnam from the military oppression which now destroys our lives and mocks our common humanity.

Our resistance begins with a belief that young Americans should not be compelled to slaughter other human beings in Vietnam. We have discovered that our rulers have lied to us about the nature of this unjust war and realize that the Selective Service System and the draft are necessayy for the continuation for our nation's crimes against humanity. Many of us oppose conscription itself because of its denial of personal freedom and all of us are aware of the unfairness of the system of conscription now in use. The military madness of our society is deerøying both Vietnam and America and poses a growing threat to the existance of human life. We wish to act effectively, to publicly challange the legitimacy of the war and the draft, and eventually to deny the warmakers the young bodies they need for the war.

Many of us now have deferments--we will renounce them. We realize that the student deferment, the conscientious objector status to a select few, deferments for the clergy and divinity students, the I-Y classification, and the other favors dispensed by the Selective Service System, are the tools of the war-makers that are used to silence, manipulate and divide young men and prevent the growth of united opposition to conscription and the war. The student deferments are their best weapon. The campus, when young people have access to the truth, is the center of the most vocal opposition to the war. The warmakers know that many stidents would refuse induction and that massive resistance would erupt if students were drafted. They wait until the student has left the campus, and if he has not yet been channelled into an approved occupation, then he is taken, singly, and if he refuses, jailed, alone.-When it is easy for them- When ther is no community of young people to resist. They systematically divide the wealthy from the poor, the student from the worker, the informed from the ignorant. All in the interest of the war machine, so that it will function silently, smoothly. Deferments are a taetic of the system, assurance that it will continue to enslave and kill, selectively, smoothly and silently.

We have prostituted ourselves to the monstrous desires of the war machine. Each of us carries a card, token of their payment for our collusion, symbol of our hope that we will continue to please our masters and receive their favors. Seeking only to escape the death machines with our own hands, we have permitted ourselves to be propagandized, coerced, and divided.

NOW WE SHALL BE UNITED IN OUR RESISTANCE

The non-cooperation movement is known as THE RESISTANCE. It means freedom from collusion in crimes against humanity. It means a chance to stop the war. We believe that non-cooperation will be a continuing process of personal liberation and the most effective challenge that youth can mount to rule of insanity. We will reclaim our lives from the warmakers and will deny them the complicity they require to wage their war and to operate their conscription machinery. On October16 will occur occur our first united action. On that date, in cities and universities all over the nation, we will publicly announce our refusal to cooperate any longer. Individually each of us will inform his draft board that his compliance with the Selective Service System has ended. Some of us will return our draft cards to a federal official. Others may publicly burn them.

CONFIDENTIAL

Our commitment will not end when we return or destroy our complicity cards. Each of us will continue to organize noncooperation in our communities and on our campuses and will otherwise act to disrupt the operation of the conscription machinery. We will continue to resist the illegal and immoral acts of our rulers. This is our commitment. We follow the example of the few who have acted alone so that that we might follow in massive numbers.

OUR ACTIONS CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Each of us will face the possibility of indictment and conviction for violation of the Military Selective Service Act. We face up to five years in prison. This may be the price "free" America requires its youth to pay for their refusal to collaborate in a system whose end product is the mass murder of human beings. If we are ordered for induction we will refuse. We are prepared to face imprisonment or exile, BUT THIS IS NOT OUR GOAL. Our goal is an end to the war, to the draft, and to begin to build a society based on freedom, not on fear, exploitation, oppression, racism, and militarism. To achieve this goal we must first take control of our own lives and begin to act in accordance with our beliefs, not in accordance with our fear of the warmakers. If enough of us stand together, balck and white, student and worker, we have a chance of attaining liberation. IF WE DON'T STAND TOGETHER WE WILL BE DESTROYED SEPERATELY.

On the 16 there will be a Draft Resistance Day in Philadelphia. There will be a demonstration at the induction center at 401 N.Broad St. at 7 A.M., rallies at all campuses during th day and a larger demonstration of draft resistance at the Independence Hall mall at 4 P.M. All groups are urged to participate and support the Draft RESISTORS from Philadelphia.

We act because we must—because our lives, lived in complicity with the military slavery and dehumanized fanaticism of our nation's dance of death, have become meaningless. We look up from our studies from our work, from the amusements American society provides, and we know the crimes committed in our names. We see insanity's picture every day in the newspaper and we read the day's reports of torture and mass murder and we know that we have been silent too long, we can turn away no longer. Only our united and massive resistance will turn our nation from its course of destruction. Brothers, hear this message and join us. We will stand together and we will turn this country around.

MALCOLM X

Not long after Reginald left, I dragged out the wildest zoot suit in New York. This was 1943. The Boston draft board had written me at Ella's, and when they had no results there, had notified the New York draft board, and, in care of Sammy, I received Uncle Sam's Greetings.

In those days only three things in the world scared me: jail, a job, and the army. I had about ten days before I was to show up at the induction center. I went right to work. The Army Intelligence soldiers, those black spies in civilian clothes, hung around in Harlem with their ears open for the white man downtown. I knew exactly where to start dropping the word. I started noising around that I was frantic to join -- the Japanese army.

When it seemed that I had the ears of the spies, I would talk and act high and crazy. A lot of Harlem hustlers actually had reached that state---as I would later. It was inevitable when one had gone long enough on heavire and heavier narcotics, and under steadily tightening vise of the hustling life. I'd snatch out and read my Greetings aloud, to make certain they heard who I was, and then I'd report downtown. (this was probably the only time my real name was heard in Harlem in those days).

The day I went down there, I costumed like an actor. With my wild zoot suit I wore the yellow knob-toe shoes, and I frizzeled my hair up into a reddish bush of conk.

I wnet in, skipping and tipping, and I thrust my tattered Greetings at the reception desk's white soldier- "Crazy-o, daddy-o, get me moving. I can't wait to get in that brown---", very likely that soldier hasn't recovered from me yet.

They had their wire on me from uptown, all right. But they still put me through the line. In that big starting room were forty or fifty other propective inductees. The room had fallen vacume quiet, with me running my mouth a mile a minute, talking nothing but slang. I was going to fight on all fronts: I was going to be a general, man, before I got done--such talk as that.

Most of them were white, of course. The tender-looking ones appeared ready to run from me. Some others had that vinegary "worst kind of nigger" look. And a few were amused, seeing me as the "Harlem jigaboo" archetype.

Also amused were some of the rooms ten or twelve Negroes. But the stony-faced rest of them looked as if they were ready to sign up to go off killing somebody--- they would havwd liked to start with me.

The line moved along pretty soon, stripped to my shorts, I was making my eager-to-join comments in the medical examination rooms--and everybody in the white coats that I saw had 4-F in his eyes. 48

U.S Code, Chapter 19–CONSPIRACY Sec. 371–Conspiracy to commit offense or to defraud the United States. If two or more persons conspire either to commit any offense against the United States or to defraud the United States, or any agency thereof in any manner or for any purpose and one or more such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years.

October 16, 1967

TO THE AUTHORITIES OF THE SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM:

Today the gallant young men of The Resistance are returning their draft cards to you. I have encouraged them, I honor them and I am at one with them in this act. Further, I advocate that all other draft-eligible men take this or similar action as soon as possible. Know that I shall regard any retaliatory measures taken against them as wholly unjustifiable–and thus I shall demand to be tried with them.

It was the Judgment of Nuremberg that every person has an individual responsibility to disobey those orders of his government which are illegal and immoral. I regard your complicity with the selective service system as conspiracy against U.S. and world law and against the peoples of the world.

WE OPPOSE THE DRAFT

BECAUSE . . We are opposed to the war in Vietnam. Although we claim to be fighting for freedom, in reality we are supporting a military dictatorship. We are inflicting enormous loss of life and destruction on a small country that has not known peace for a generation. We are preventing the Vietnamese from solving their own problems and we are neglecting our own problems here at home, because of this unjust war.

Do not KILL . . . . . or BE KILLED in Vietnam!

BECAUSE . . The government has no business forcing men into the army, forcing them to go to war, to kill and be killed. Young men should be free to determine their own future, free from coercion. We want to decide for ourselves!

BECAUSE . . The draft is unfair. While young men are going out to be killed, those with special connections (such as some professional athletes) stay at home. We stand to get killed while companies profit from war

Are you one of the millions of people deeply concerned about what our military machine is doing in Vietnam? Concerned about the needless killing?

ISN'T IT TIME YOU SPEAK OUT AGAINST THE WAR?

Are you one of the millions of young men facing the draft? Are you reluctant to join in the slaughter? THEN----

YOU DON'T HAVE TO GO

* You may be eligible for a deferment, which will postpone your decision about the war. For example if you are supporting a child, or if your wife is pregnant, you cannot be drafted. Students and men in certain jobs may be eligible for a deferment. Altogether there are 14 kinds of deferments and exemptions, and we can help you get a deferment.

* You can become a conscientious objector. Conscientious objectors spend their two years working to help people, instead of killing them. Growing numbers of men whose consciences will not allow them to serve as soldiers are becoming C.O.'s.

* Or YOU CAN REFUSE TO GO. More and more people are simply saying, "Hell no, we won't go," when faced with induction.

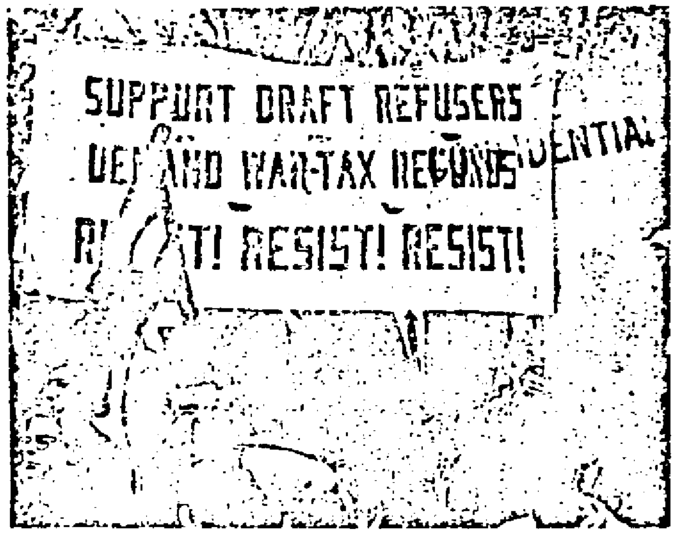

If you want to talk over your draft problems, if you need help or advice, get in touch with us. We are trained draft counselors, and will help you obtain free legal assistance.

This leaflet says A MAN SHOULD KNOW FACTS AND RIGHTS, AND FOLLOW HIS CONSCIENCE. For some, this will be entering the military. Others have other choices.
- If you are one of many draft-age men who have serious objections to war, or to the War in Vietnam, you should stop, look, and listen for OTHER CHOICES.

1-A-O

Many individuals accept the necessity of military force, but have conscientious scruples against taking another man's life. They are willing to relieve the suffering of wounded men whether friend or foe.

Some men are often able to maintain their conscientious beliefs as they perform the duty required of them by the government, but others have experienced difficulty.

These C.O.'s, called noncombatants, are classified 1-A-0 by Selective Service and are usually trained for medical service duty. 1-A-0's may be assigned to other duties, such as office work or a military band, which do not involve the use of weapons.

NONCOOPERATION

Objectors in the third group who feel they cannot comply with the draft law at all are called non-cooperators. Some object because cooperation with the draft law would be participation in the military system. Others deny the right of the government to make choices for the individual. They refuse to accept either civilian or military assignment.

There is no exemption in the draft law for non-cooperators. They face a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine and/or five years in prison, though sentences tend to be less than the maximum. Men failing to secure their desired C.O. classification [illegible] refusing the assignment given them, face the same penalties.

The non-cooperator can find numerous oppor-

123733

1-O POSITION

Another group, alternative service men, acknowledges an obligation to perform a period of socially useful service under civilian direction. They are opposed to both combatant and noncombatant duty.

The draft law provides that these C.O.'s shall perform an equal period of civilian service ". . . contributing to the maintenance of the national health, safety, or interest."

Many of these C.O.'s serve as attendants in hospitals. Some are employed by governmental or social welfare agencies in the U.S.; others serve overseas. C.O.'s who perform this type of service are able to make a significant contribution to their country while fulfilling the requirements of the draft law.

Your board must classify you in the lowest classification for which you are eligible. I-A is the highest.

I-A—Available for military duty.
I-A-O—C.O. available for noncombatant duty.
I-O—C.O. available for civilian alternative service.
I-S—High school student or college student ordered to report for induction but deferred to complete his school year.
I-Y—Qualified for military or alternative service only in time of war or national emergency.
II-A—Deferred for essential civilian work.
II-C—Deferred for essential agricultural work.
II-S—Deferred for college or graduate study.
I-D—Member of military reserve unit or student taking military training.
III-A—Dependency deferment.
IV-D—Minister or ministerial student.
IV-F—Not qualified for any service.
V-A—Over age.
I-W—C.O. performing civilian work.

YOUR OTHER CHOICES Under The Draft

Do You Know Your Rights?

- Law requires that accused persons be fully advised of all their rights.
- Can we do less for our sons, our neighbors and students in school?

That's why this leaflet has been prepared -- to tell the rest of the story.

There are several kinds. Much overlap. Much depends on how YOU define things.

RELIGIOUS OBJECTORS: (The only kind now covered by law, but law being tested.) You are NOT required to be a member of any church or religious organization, or to adhere to any formal creed. The Supreme Court says it is not necessary to express beliefs in traditional or religious terminology. Therefore, ASSUME YOU DO OR MAY QUALIFY. Don't count yourself out because you do not agree with what you think someone else thinks about the Supreme Being, etc. The Courts have interpreted "Religious Training and Belief" very broadly.

MORAL, ETHICAL OBJECTORS: Oppose injustices, inhumanities. May be agnostics or atheists, but argue on moral grounds.

HUMANITARIAN OBJECTORS: War brutalizes, debases many men. Man is the ultimate value, not the state or political cause.

POLITICAL OBJECTORS: War is no longer a useful instrument of foreign policy. No one "wins" a war any more.

ECONOMIC OBJECTORS: Wars cost so much, waste so much -- in men, money, and using up of natural resources.

THIS-WAR-ONLY, or VIETNAM OBJECTORS: "It's the war now in process. Others will be like it. Hitler and 1776 are not parallels, not even similar."

KINDS OF ERRORS DRAFT BOARDS MAKE

Board Members and Clerks are human, and often make human errors. Some errors ar thoughtless, or unconscious. Many are doubtless intentional. Many are procedural, ignoring regulations. Examples:

-Refuse to grant a local board hearing.
-Order to report for induction while an appeal is pending.
-Some don't really know the draft law.
-Some feel a conscientious objector is a shirker or even a traitor.
-Many regard unconventional views and dress with suspicion and hostility.
-Most Boards will try to force a compromise. (Pressure is a fair way of testing sincerity, but beware of effort to force 1-O into a 1-A-O position.)

KINDS OF ERRORS REGISTRANTS MAKE

-Some are discourteous, arrogant, pushy.
-Some lack integrity, are opportunistic.
-Fail to respect people as people while disagreeing with their ideas.
-Fail to meet legal deadlines.
-Do not keep copies of correspondence.
-Make procedural errors in regulations.
-Postpone thinking about their position.
-Fail to get information in advance.
-Let others, or social conformity, decide what they think or do.
-Assume they do not qualify.
-Assume they must be a Quaker to be a CO.
-State what they don't believe about God or religion, rather than what do believe -Give answers too short, or too long.
-Are swayed by slogans or half-truths.
-Fear of letting others know their feelin

CONFI ENTIAL

WHY WAS THE 10% PHONE TAX RESTORED?

Because of the widening war in Vietnam, federal legislation passed in April 1966 raised the tax on telephone bills from 3% to 10%.

"It is clear," the Rep. Wilbur Mills, who managed the House tax legislation, "that the Vietnam, and only the Vietnam operation makes this bill necessary." (See Cong. Rec. Feb 23, 1966.)

WHAT DOES YOUR PHONE TAX PAY FOR?

brutal extermination of thousands of Vietnamese through napalm and mass bombings (about 200,000 casualties in a year and a half);

forcing young Americans into situations where they must kill civilians; violation of the Nuremberg precedents, of the United Nations Charter, and of the Geneva Accords of 1954; indefinite continuation of war against a people who desire above all to be alive and to determine their destiny free from foreign domination.

WHY BOYCOTT THIS TAX?

A tax boycott demonstrates that you believe this war to be immoral and/or [redacted], and that you are willing to act on that belief. It is the kind of resistance to immoral and illegal acts of government advocated by the U.S. at the Nuremberg Trials. We choose the phone tax

123736

- o it is actually in your power to refuse it;
- o most of the tax was admittedly imposed to pay for the war;
- o it would cost the government more to collect the tax from the refusers than the amounts involved.

WHAT HAPPENS TO PHONE TAX REFUSERS?

Several Philadelphians have joined others across the country in refusing to pay the phone tax (at least the 7% recently added), with letters explaining to the company the reasons for the refusal. Answers indicate that the phone company considers the refusal a matter between the individual and the government, with nothing said about possible phone discontinuance. One phone company called to remind a customer that he had forgotten to withhold the tax on the current bill!

TAX REFUSAL AND THE LAW.

The law states clearly that the collection on the telephone tax is ultimately a matter between the individual and the government.

According to the Commerce Clearing House 1966 Excise Tax Guide, Paragraph 2235 on Collection of Tax by Another Person, "...If the person from whom the tax is required to be collected refuses to pay it ... the collecting agency is required to report the facts to the district director of revenue and the tax will then be collected by direct assessment against the person failing or refusing to pay the tax to the

One who "wilfully fails to pay" the phone tax could possibly be charged with a misdemeanor, under Section 7203 of the Internal Revenue Code, and be imprisoned up to one year and fined an amount up to $10,000. It is also possible that one could be charged with attempt to "evade or defeat" the phone tax, under a section carrying a stiffer penalty.

However, experiences of objectors to other federal war taxes during the past several years indicate that the government would not be interested in pressing criminal charges, but that it would instead try here or there to collect the tax (with interest).

I hereby pledge to deduct the Federal tax from my telephone bill payments as a concrete means of voicing my disapproval of America's military policy in Vietnam.

FOR RELEASE ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1967.

Today, we of The Resistance join hundreds of other young men across the country in severing our ties with the Selective Service System. Our consciences forbid us to cooperate any further with a system that perpetuates violence. By this act of confrontation we hope to change America's attitudes on peace and war. This change, we feel, cannot be accomplished through existing political channels. So we join Socrates, Jesus, Thoreau and Gandhi in "casting our whole weight against the machine of injustice" (Thoreau). We refuse to carry Selective Service registration cards, to accept deferments of any sort, or to comply with any orders that this system may issue. Let it be on record that we will encourage and assist other young men to non-cooperate with conscription.

6 Burn Cards As 200 Look On At Draft Rally

War Protest Is Staged At Independence Hall And Police Building

Six young men stood outside Independence Hall yesterday afternoon and burned what they said were their draft cards.

As a crowd of 200 looked on, draft cards were collected from 21 other men and placed in a large manila envelope for mailing to Brig. Gen. Henry M. Gross, state representative of the Selective Service System in Harrisburg.

It was all part of what was billed as the kickoff of national draft resistance week, which is to culminate Saturday with a mass protest in Washington.

Four-Hour 'Campout'

The demonstration, which began at 4 P. M., ended at 10.15 last night after a four-hour "campout" by 40 persons at the Police Administration Building, 8th and Race sts.

The campout was in protest against the arrest of three persons during the anti-war rally in Independence Square on charges unrelated to the card-burning.

The crowd refused to leave the police building until bail ultimately was raised for the trio—two young men and a 46-year-old Camden woman.

Students and Hippies

The first to step forward and burn his card in Independence Square identified himself as Richard T. Williams, 22. He gave no address.

"My main regret is that I don't see enough of my brothers here today," Williams, a Negro, told the crowd, which was composed largely of students and hippies but intermixed with secretaries and businessmen just off work.

Reporters who were invited to cursorily examine the cards before they were burned believed them to be authentic. The ashes from the cards also were placed in the envelope sent to Gen. Gross.

Another speaker was the Rev. David Gracie, urban missioner in the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, who exclaimed: "I congratulate the courageous young men who refuse to cooperate any further with the immoral selective service laws!"

Hecklers shouted "Phony baloney!" and "Why don't you lecture in Red Square?"

Two Arrested

Meanwhile a member of the police Civil Disobedience Unit, under the command of Lt. George Fencl, arrested James B. Hart, 25, of Lancaster av. near 37th st., and Gregg Carlson, 20, of Rodman st. near 15th.

Officer Luke Farrell gave this account of the arrests:

Hart was photographing members of the Civil Disobedience Unit, who in turn were photographing the demonstrators. Hart was allegedly bumping policemen and spectators watching the activity.

Hart stepped on Farrell's foot while moving through the crowd.

Farrell, in plainclothes and carrying a walkie-talkie instead of a camera, warned him not to become disorderly.

Minutes later Hart again stepped on Farrell's left foot and, while raising his camera to photograph Farrell, knocked the policeman's right hand.

As Farrell told Hart he was placing him under arrest, Hart "fell limp to the ground."

Farrell told him to get up or face an additional charge of resisting arrest. When Hart refused, Farrell and a uniformed policeman placed him in a patrol wagon on Chestnut st.

The second man, Carlson, stood in front of the wagon. Farrell told him to move or face arrest.

Farrell said Carlson replied, "Well, arrest me." He was placed in the wagon.

Held for Hearing

Both Hart and Carlson were charged with breach of the peace and disorderly conduct. Hart also was charged with resisting arrest and Carlson with interfering with a police officer.

At an arraignment at the Police Administration Building before Magistrate Edward S. Cox, both were held in $300 bail for a hearing at 3 P. M. Monday.

On the suggestion of a member of the group sponsoring the rally—Philadelphia Anti-Draft Union, 1515 South st.—the crowd left Independence Hall for the Police Administration Building to protest the arrests. On the way, the envelope containing the cards was placed in a mailbox by Professor Thomas Bradley, of Swarthmore College.

At police headquarters, the demonstrators now totaling about 125—were told by police they could not enter the building in such numbers to witness the arraignments for the two suspects.

The demonstrators then sat outside the Race st. entrance.

The demonstrators spent their vigil munching cookies, playing guitars and rewriting placards. Three girls who had carried a sign reading "Bryn Mawr Says Yes to Anti-Draft" flipped the placard over, wrote "Free the Political Prisoners" and used the updated sign while picketing.

Meanwhile, Miss Helen Celkalsky, 46, of Fillmore av., Camden, was arrested for allegedly biting Patrolman William Ross, stationed at the lobby's information desk.

She had entered by a rear entrance to find, she said, a friend whom she erroneously thought had been arrested. Ross said she screamed and kicked and bit him on the hand. He was treated at Philadelphia General Hospital and released.

Miss Celkalsky was held by Cox on $800 bail for a hearing Monday on charges of assault and battery on a policeman, breach of the peace, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest.

One Refuses Release

The crowd raised the ten percent of the bail which was necessary to secure the release of the three suspects. Hart, however, refused to accept release and was confined to the detention center pending the hearing.

Loud cheers greeted Carlson and Miss Celkalsky as they left the building at 10.15.

In downtown Chester, 25 marchers also demonstrated against conscription as they paced for over an hour outside the Fidelity Building, 5th and Market sts., in which a draft board is located.

Seminarians and college students were among the demonstrators.

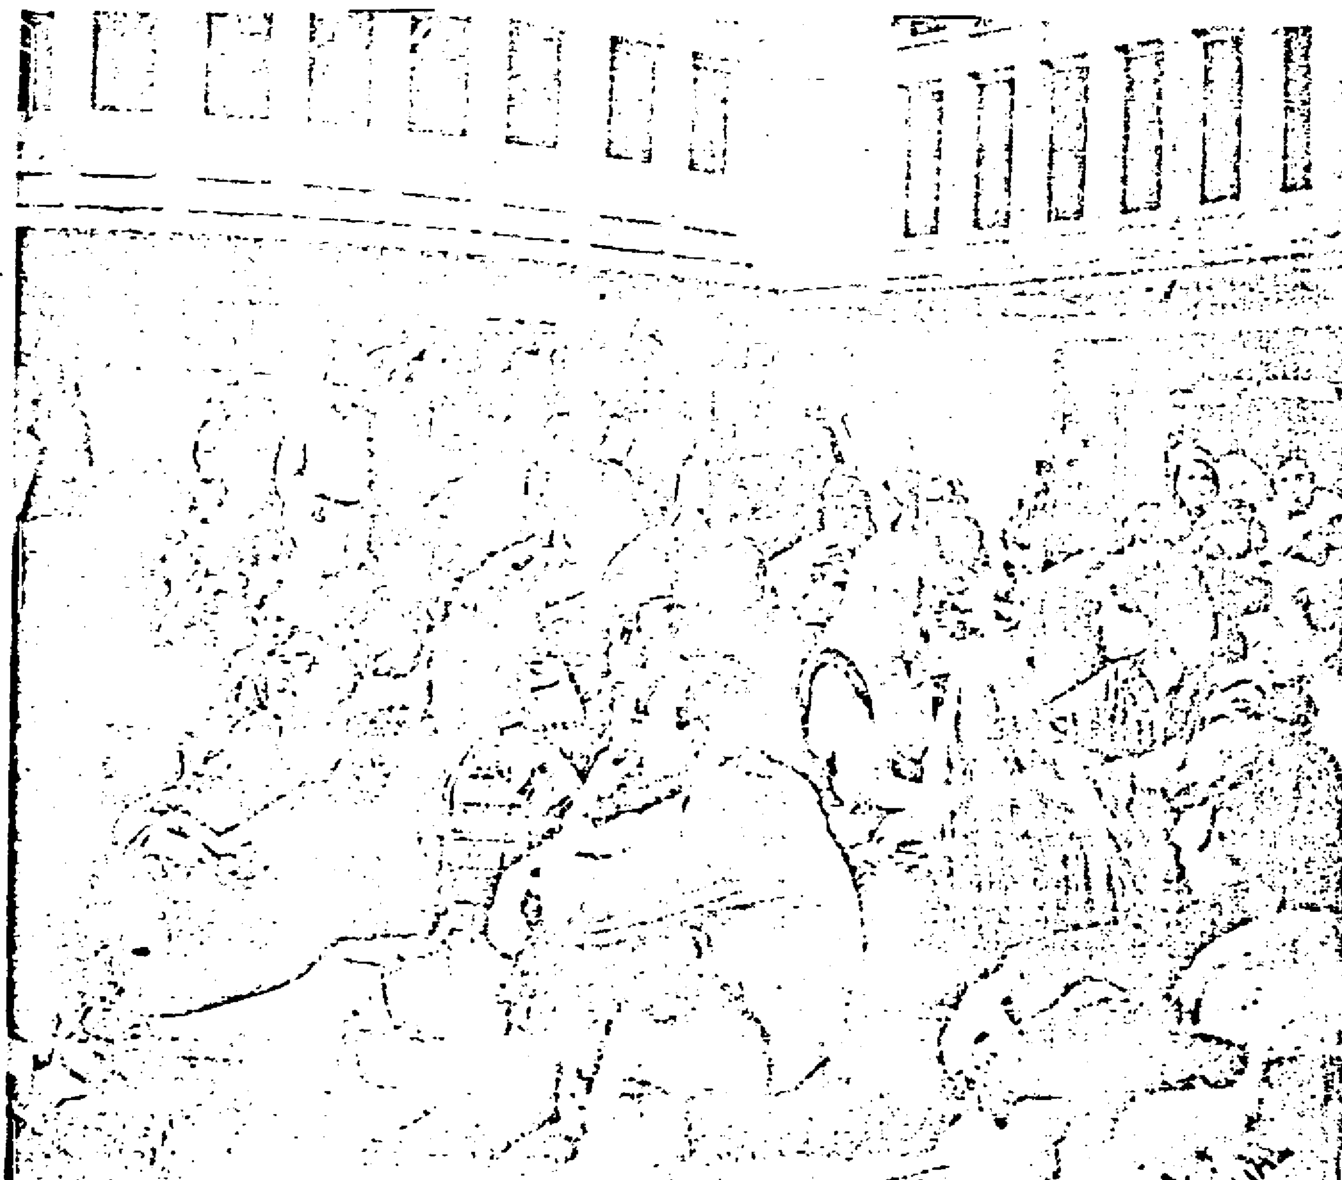

Among the marchers was the Rev. Frank McGinty, pastor of St. Rose of Lima Roman Catholic Church, Eddystone.

Students return draft cards

By TERRY ZINTL and BERL SCHWARTZ

Two University students turned in their draft cards yesterday in front of several hundred people at an anti-Vietnam war demonstration at Independence Hall.

The students, Robert H. Green, Jr. and Richard Sloat, were among seven young persons who mailed back their cards to the state director of Selective Service.

Three persons burned their cards.

The protest was sponsored by the Philadelphia Anti-Draft Union. Among the speakers was Thompson Bradley, a professor at Swarthmore College.

Green, a 22 year-old senior in the College, had first planned to burn his card but later changed his mind. He said he will go to jail if he is faced with the draft.

At the demonstration Green said, "I've reached the point where I believe the war is wrong. By that I mean morally wrong."

Explaining why he turned in his card he said, "To do anything less would be being an accomplice."

Green also said that he will not pay taxes to the Federal government to protest the war. He said that his future plans may include graduate school or working for the Friends (Quakers).

He also said he had privately turned his Selective Service registration card five months ago. What he had planned to burn yesterday, but actually sent back to the Selective Service, was his classification card.

Green, who is from Madison, Conn. is classified II-S.

Sloat, who comes from Westport, Conn., and is also a student in the College, is classified I-Y.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC):

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as communists.

"(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition', Part 1, October 3, 1961, page 5)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 196[illegible] to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC). A national meeting of this organization was held in Chicago, Illinois on April 27 and 28, 1963.

A second source advised on May 11, 1967, that as of that date the NCAHUAC continued to function with headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

PROGRESSIVE LAB... PARTY

[redacted]

"The New York Times", City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary Socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as Milton Rosen, New York, President, and William Epton of New York and Mort Scheer of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the Party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. Rosen and Mr. Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bimonthly magazine; "Challenge", a monthly New York City newspaper; and "Spark", a west coast newspaper.

The April, 1967 issue of "Challenge", page 14, states that "This paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life - where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government of every level."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965 SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966 issue of "New Left Notes", the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967 was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The article stated that at a press conference, called by the captioned group on January 12, 1968, in New York City, Martin Luther King, Jr., had called for a large-scale antiwar rally to be held in Washington, D. C., on February 5-6, 1968. According to the article, the statement was made during a news conference which also voiced support for Dr. Benjamin Spock and the four co-defendants who were recently indicted by a Federal Grand Jury for counseling evasion of the draft. With regard to the demonstration, King stated that while other protesters would not be turned away, the demonstration would be primarily for church affiliated groups. He said details of what form the demonstration would take have not been worked out. King was quoted as stating, "We have no plans to try to close the Pentagon or any other Federal building--we have no illusions about that."

Re: Demonstrations at the Pentagon, May 22, 1972

It should be noted that the National Peace Action Coalition and PCPJ are co-sponsoring an antiwar demonstration in Washington on May 21, and that groups from eastern seaboard cities will be participating.

In addition, Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam and Vietnam Veterans Against the War plan to hold a memorial service at Sylvan Theater from 8:00 p.m. May 21, to 4:00 a.m. May 22, followed by a candlelight march to Arlington Cemetary. These groups hope to have as many as 3,000 participate.

[illegible] in Pentagon protest

By JUDY LUCE [illegible]

More than [illegible] are expected to take part in the [illegible] demonstration [illegible] Sunday and [illegible] are expected to take part in [illegible] to "blockade" [illegible] the Pentagon on Monday.

Sunday's demonstration, which will include a march [illegible] is [illegible] sponsored by the National Peace Action Coalition and the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice. PCPJ has called for the Monday [illegible] blockade. It is the same group which sponsored May Day demonstrations here last year which resulted in [illegible] arrests.

The PCPJ spokesman, a veteran of the MayDay siege, stopped short of predicting that Monday's action will definitely lead to a repeat of MayDay. "We're really operating in the blind," he said. "It's not like MayDay, where we had a year to organize. MayDay was very carefully done by a lot of people who had years of experience organizing. This is an emergency action," which was announced as recently as Friday.

Many of the people organizing Monday's blockade "are new people," he said, and while at least two architects of May Day—Rennie Davis and John Froines—have joined up, they do not have the leadership roles they did in MayDay, he said. MayDay survivors have formed a new group, the Anti-War Union, which is essentially an information unit and is disseminating films, broadcasts and written material about the war, rather than organizing street actions.

PCPJ so far has been refused a permit for a march from the Lincoln Memorial to the Pentagon, but negotiations are continuing. The exact route for marchers has not yet been decided, according to the spokesman. "We have [illegible] plan [illegible]," he said. [illegible] to camp on park land [illegible].

He said [illegible] "If [illegible] the mood [illegible] correctly" Sunday will bring out "tens of thousands of people" and Monday will result in a high number of arrests.

The attempt to block the Pentagon, unlike MayDay, will be focused on one specific area. On MayDay activists spread thruout the city, a tactic that divided their numbers into small, isolated groups that could be handled by police.

"MayDay didn't work. We didn't stop tr[illegible] we didn't stop the government. All we di[illegible] succeed in getting a lot of people busted [illegible] making the cops act like brutes," said [illegible] spokesman.

At a press conference last Friday, R. Davis also emphasized the change in ta[illegible] "This protest is not aimed at disrupting lives of people who work in this commun[illegible]" he said.

Only the roads leading to the Pentagon [illegible] be blocked "so we can isolate the men dir[illegible] responsible for carrying out the war in [illegible] names."

The presence in South Carolina of activities sponsored by captioned organization was first noted on October 10, 1970, when an article entitled "Charleston Bishop Assigns Kaney to Inner City Work in Greenville," which appeared in the October 10, 1970 issue of the Greenville Piedmont, announced that Rev. Michael E. Kaney, a priest who had served since 1965 at Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church in Greenville, South Carolina, had on that date been assigned to Inner City Work in Greenville by the Most Rev. Ernest L. Unterkoefler, Bishop of Charleston. In this article, Kaney was quoted as saying, "This assignment, which will be based here in Greenville, is merely an official recognition and expansion of the work I have been doing for the past two years".

"I shall be involved in three areas of main concern. These are peace organizing and draft counseling; race relations, and the 'hip' community.

"Since I am hired as a field worker for Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam (CALCAV), most of my time will, quite naturally, be spent in the first objective".

The article reported that Kaney, born February 18, 1936 in Bath, South Carolina, received his Associate of Arts Degree at St. Bernard's College in Cullman, Alabama, and his Bachelor of Arts Degree at St. Mary's University, Baltimore, Maryland. He completed his four-year theological course at St. Mary's.

The article set out the following information regarding Kaney and his activities prior to this time:

> "Ordained in 1960 at St. John's Cathedral, Charleston, the priest was stationed at St. Andrew's Church, Myrtle Beach, Blessed Sacrament, Nativity Parish and Divine Redeemer in Charleston and St. Anthony Church in Florence before coming to our Lady of the Rosary in 1965.

CALCAV has publicly described itself as an inter-religious and anti-war group. In 1971, it publicly claimed to have been in existence for five years with offices in New York City, New York.

Fellowship of Reconciliation (FOR) is a pacifist organiation which was established in England in 1914 by a small group of Christians who, during World War I, decided they would not participate in the mass killing of the war. A year later, at Garden City, Long Island, New York, the Fellowship was organized in the United States by 68 men and women and since then, similar fellowships have been created in a score of countries and cooperate with one another through the agency of the International FOR. The organization has always been vigorous in its opposition to war and is committed to the achieving of a peaceful world community. National headquarters of this organization in the United States are located in Nyack, New York.

"We may not forget them."

My old Webster's defines patriotism as love of country; devotion to the welfare of one's country; the zealous support of a country's authority and interest.

Tolstoy, I think, came the closest to defining patriotism when he wrote: Patriotism is unreasonable, not only because it runs counter to the first principles of Christ's teachings against egoism, but also because Humanity gains, by its own methods, everything for which patriotism seeks thus making patriotism superfluous, unnecessary and a hindrance, like a lamp by daylight.

A government is good because or when it is established to form a more perfect union, to establish justice, to insure domestic tranquility, to provide for the common defense, to promote the general welfare, and to secure the blessings of liberty for everyone. And it is only good as long as it continues to maintain these goals. It was the goals that brought about the Constitution of our government.

As I look out and see this country, I discover that these governmental goals seemingly are only for the middle class and upper middle class of Americana. The red man, the black man, the yellow man, the brown man, and the poor white man are not given the same benefits.

But to get back to Webster's definition. It states that love of country is the thing; how unfortunate that love of the citizens for their fellow citizens is not the definition. So often in any country, the love of that country is placed far above the love of the countrymen, which seems an inversion of priorities.

Devotion to the welfare of one's country is equally an unsatisfactory conclusion — even though it is one that people think right and just. Devotion to land and its protection seems to be only a thin disguise for materialism. It is unfortunate that the dictionary and the people at large would consider patriotism as the devotion to the welfare of citizens. But then, of course, the dictionary can only give the definitions of ideas as the people have them. And in the case of patriotism, I am afraid it is all too correct.

Well, just consider the final part of the definition: zealous support of a country's authority and interest. Frightening, but true! And it seems that this is the very type of patriotism rampant today... the same kind that was true in Hitler's Germany as the people changed something like, "My country, right or wrong." It makes the country god!

I would think that one's first allegiance is not to a flag, not to a country, not to a political system, but to Humanity. If I covet flag, country and political system as my god of the first order, then I become like the Roman imperial Ceasars; my grain of incense is offered in one arena or the other.

Patriotism is an evil in the sense that it divides people into certain categories. It immediately shows how peoples of the world are different; are to be separated. Walls are built up around patriotism; never torn down in its name.

Now consider what Tolstoy wrote about patriotism. He sees Christ's injunction of dying to one's self for the benefit of another, his many requests that his followers cleave to nothing that is temporal as a counter to patriotism. It would indeed seem that publicly, approved egoism should be just as evil as private, individual pride!

He also insists that patriotism is superfluous in the light of Humanity. I would not go so far, since we have seen how slow, how frightened Humans and Humanity can be. I think it needs yet another arm to assist it.

So we may be patriotic. But we may glory in our country only when there is one brotherhood. One brotherhood in the love of Humanity. A brotherhood that will transcend human, man-made, arbitrary boundaries of flag or country.

Until we accept the colors of the world, the cultures of man and the economics of understanding, we may not be proud of our country. We may not forget them to protect a legacy that forgets them. We may not forget them to protect our own goods. We may not forget them in the interest of a world image. We, in short, may not forget them.

[redacted] advised on June 24, 1971, that Kaney had distributed a newsletter concerning his recent activities to approximately 150 individuals and organizations throughout South Carolina and several other states.

He related in this newsletter that, in June 1971, John Cupples of the Boston Regional Office of CALCAV came to Greenville and met with eighteen (18) South Carolinians (8 from Greenville, 2 from Clemson, 4 from Spartanburg, and 4 from Columbia) to discuss the possibility of setting up a state coordinating office and clearinghouse, and southern mood and tactics.

Kaney reported that since early April 1971, he had been busily engaged in counseling conscientious objectors, speaking to high school and college groups concerning peace and his opposition to the military draft and Vietnam War, participating in the formation of American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) chapters in Greenville and Spartanburg and his participation in anti-war, anti-draft demonstrations and teach-ins at Furman University at Greenville, and Wofford College at Spartanburg. He pointed out that he had also spoken to various groups about his participation in anti-war demonstrations in Washington, D. C., during April 24, 1971 through May 1, 1971. He praised the demonstrations and indicated he had been arrested during these demonstrations.

An article in the October 8, 1971 issue of The Tiger reported that Kaney, "a member of the field staff of Clergy and Laymen Concerned" (CALC) participated in a debate concerning the role of the military held October 6, 1971, on the campus of Clemson University. The article noted that, in his opening remarks, Kaney gave his views on the "atrocities" carried out by the Pentagon and the Armed Forces. He also gave examples of "the inflated price of our military forces". Kaney claimed that taxes should not be paid to further our military goals and gave a list of figures dealing with the "senseless murdering of civilians" through such means as search and destroy missions, and the bombing of the "supposed" Viet Cong. Racism and the role of the Vietnamese people themselves were also discussed.

Concerning the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) on college campuses, Kaney said ROTC was used for blackmail purposes by the military with penalty of loss of federal funds with a drop in the program. He ended his remarks with the expressed desire that a civilian defense with the use of non-aggressive means to be used for world peace methods being employed to keep each nation in check.

According to an article in the October 12, 1971 issue of the Greenville Piedmont, a newspaper published daily at Greenville, South Carolina, Kaney, local representative of CALC, announced that, on October 13, 1971, a Moratorium Day teach-in would be held at the Birnie Street Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) in Greenville. He noted that "October 13th is Moratorium Day, when people have taken part in various anti-war demonstrations in past years" and said "Repression at Home and Abroad" would be the theme of the teach-in. He said several groups of blacks and whites would be included and stated that "in Greenville, we hope to show a solidarity in opposition both to the war against yellow people in Asia and repression of black people in this country".

The article further reported that, at 4:30 p.m., on October 13, 1971, protestors would march in front of the Federal Building in Greenville "to renew the public's awareness that 300 people a day are still dying in the war". Kaney was quoted as saying American bombing raids in the war zone "are like a My Lai massacre every day. Murders of civilians can't be ignored just because the killing is done from planes".

[redacted] advised that Kaney, identifying himself as a representative of CALCAV, obtained a permit from the office of the Mayor in Greenville for 25 people to hold a demonstration in front of the Federal Building at Greenville from 4:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., on October 13, 1971. Kaney gave his address as 10 Manly Street, Greenville, South Carolina, and his telephone number as 235-6171.

On October 13, 1971, Special Agents of the FBI observed Kaney and approximately 22 other individuals (18 young people and three adults) as they assembled in front of the Federal Building between 4:28 p.m., and 4:45 p.m. From 4:45 p.m. until 5:30 p.m., they conducted a walking protest march in front of the Federal Building, carrying posters calling for an end of the Vietnam War and complaining about the deaths in Vietnam.

[redacted]

The WRL is an organization whose activities include assistance in the counseling of active duty servicemen towards anti-war activity through establishments known as "coffee houses".

[redacted] advised that Kaney, CALC, Box 10342, Greenville, South Carolina, had distributed a six-page brochure on the Clemson University campus announcing that people from South Carolina and Kentucky would travel to Washington, D. C., on October 21, 1971, for a workshop of non-violent civil disobedience. The brochure was entitled "Daily Death Toll (The DDT Program in Washington)" and noted that, on October 22, 1971, each person would visit and explain their action to their Congressmen. Then, during the afternoon of the same date, they planned to be arrested in front of the White House. The brochure urged "no bail, no bond" and noted that a plea of no contest would yield two days in jail.

Included in the brochure was a one-size questionnaire to determine the recipient's willingness to participate in the various phases of the DDT program, including the recipient's willingness to be arrested. The recipients were asked to return the executed questionnaire to CALC, Box 10342, Greenville, South Carolina (803-235-6171).

On November 22, 1971, [redacted] advised Kaney, Field Representative for CALCAV, had provided leaflets concerning anti-war demonstrations to be held in Washington, D. C., during November 8-24, 1971. These leaflets were posted on the Furman University campus and encouraged students to join Kaney in his trip to Washington, D. C., and demonstrate against the "killing in Vietnam."

An article in the January 13, 1972 issue of the Greenville Piedmont reported that Kaney had been appointed by Bishop Ernest L. Unterkoefler to officially represent the Catholic diocese of Charleston at an inter-faith conference being held January 13-16, 1972 in Kansas City, Missouri. The conference was "called by 132 Jewish, Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox and Protestant religious leaders" to "discuss the moral issues of the Indochina war". The article noted that Kaney, who "has been active throughout South Carolina as executive director of the state chapter of Clergy and Laymen Concerned" had recently been appointed staff directory of the Greenville Chapter of CALC and would also represent that organization at this conference.

On March 7, 1972 [redacted] advised that Kaney received a supply of leaflets entitled,"Resist!! April 15th," which contained anti-draft, anti-war, taxes and anti-killing and bombing in Southeast Asia statements, and announced that April 15, 1972 had been chosen as the day for people in the Southeastern part of the United States (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina) "to take back control of their lives" from pro-war forces and inviting others to join them.

[redacted] advised that the CALC marchers plan to assemble and depart from a point in downtown Greenville on Saturday, April 15, 1972, and march to Columbia, South Carolina. Source said there are approximately twelve "hard core" members who plan to walk the entire distance, but noted there are others who have jobs to hold down and will participate in brief segments of the march. He said Jim Turner, Reporter for the Greenville Piedmont, and the husband of Mrs. Leslie Turner, planned to participate in the march on Saturday and Sunday, April 15 and 16, 1972.

Source said the group plans to march 15 or 20 miles each day and will spend the night at churches or other public places along the route.

On March 23, 1972, [redacted] advised that Kaney planned to participate in this march and had made arrangements for the marchers to spend one night during the march in the church of Charles Dawkins at Little Mountain, South Carolina.

On March 29, 1972, [redacted] advised that leaflets entitled, "Walk for Life" were distributed at the Furman gathering. These leaflets were printed and distributed by "South Carolina Clergy & Laity Concerned, Box 10342, Greenville, 29603 ... 803-235-6171," and extended an invitation to recipients to join CALC members on April 15, the customary day for the payment of income taxes, in asking the United States Government to cease spending two thirds of its tax money on war, war materials and on war planning and to give its citizens a new list of life-giving priorities by spending tax monies for the desperately needed goods in this country.

On April 15, 1972, a Special Agent of the FBI observed approximately 30 CALC members as they departed from the front of the Federal Building at Greenville and began their "Walk for Life" which was scheduled to be concluded on April 22, 1972, in Columbia, South Carolina.

On March 18, 1972, a Special Agent of the FBI observed Kaney, Jim Turner, and a third unknown white male, traveling in a dark blue (top) and white (bottom half) Ford Falcon "Econoline" van bearing 1972 South Carolina license BBD-170. The windows and sides of this vehicle were covered with various types of anti-war and "peace" leaflets.

On April 14, 1972, [redacted] Motor Vehicle Division, South Carolina Highway Department, Columbia, South Carolina, advised that 1972 South Carolina license BBD 170 was issued to Catholic Diocese of Charleston, Post Office Box 10342, Greenville, South Carolina, for use on a 1965 Ford van.

An article in the April 28, 1972, issue of the Greenville Piedmont reported that William O. Trotter, from the Charlotte, North Carolina, Office of the Honeywell Corporation, met with four members of Greenville's CALC April 26, 1972, to discuss his company's role in the Vietnam War. The article noted that the local group planned to stage a "peace vigil" outside the Greenville Office of Honeywell during the afternoon of that date "and every succeeding Wednesday".

CALC members who met with Trotter included Dr. Albert Blackwell, Religion Professor at Furman University; Mrs. Leslie Turner, a local music teacher; Art Kramer, a retired chemist; and George L. Johnson, a communications specialist. They requested a meeting with the Honeywell spokesman because the firm manufactures anti-personnel bombs which the group said are being used "indiscriminately" by the United States in the Indo-China War.

On May 11, 1972, [redacted] Honeywell Electronic Data Processing, 820 East Washington Street, advised that a group of six to ten CALC members have picketed this office on April 26, 1972, May 3, 1972, and May 10, 1972. He said the group carries signs and distributes leaflets expressing opposition to the firm's manufacturing of war materials. He said officials of his firm had informed the CALC members that it no longer makes weapons but pointed out to them that the firm would do so again if requested to do so by the United States Government. He said the group had indicated that they would continue to picket the office on Wednesday of each week until Honeywell publicly declares that it will stop the production of anti-personnel bombs.

On May 3, 1972, [redacted] advised that leaflets had been distributed on the Furman University campus announcing that CALC members would hold a "demonstration and leafletting" in front of the Honeywell Corporation from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m., on May 3, 1972. The leaflet further indicated that this group would hold a "petition circulation, leafletting, and guerrilla theater" in downtown Greenville from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., on May 4, 1972. These activities were to be coordinated from the front of the Federal Building, and were to be followed by a picnic supper at 6:00 p.m., in McPherson Park in downtown Greenville.

On May 4, 1972, [redacted] Federal Building, Greenville, South Carolina, advised that, at approximately 4:30 p.m., on this date, 13 members of CALC, including Kaney and Jim Turner, arrived in front of the Federal Building. Turner was driving a 1970 green and white (top) Volkswagen bus, bearing 1972 South Carolina license AYK-180, which had the words "Honeywell Kills" written in the dirt that covered the sides of the vehicle. Turner was observed removing a number of anti-war placards from his vehicle and distributing them to the CALC members. The individuals then paraded around the Federal Building until 5:20 p.m., displaying their placards and handing out leaflets, which included membership applications for "Greenville CALC, 20 Waccamah Circle, Greenville, South Carolina".

[redacted] noted that the demonstrators played flutes during the protest march and stated that Kaney attempted to march through the Federal Building parking lot with the signs. When [redacted] told him that they could not demonstrate on Federal property, Kaney ignored him and attempted to continue his march on Federal property, carrying the anti-war posters. However, when [redacted] warned him a second time, Kaney instructed the demonstrators to lay down their signs when passing through the parking lot and pick them up again when they reached the public street.

An article in the May 11, 1972 issue of the Greenville Piedmont reported that six Greenville members of CALC, headed by Kaney, were among the demonstrators at the Coalition of Peace in Washington, D. C., on May 11, 1972. The article noted that the six attended a sunrise service on that date and were among the group that appeared on the steps of the capitol building protesting the escalation of the Vietnam War. It was noted that Mrs. Leslie Turner, Chairman of the local CALC chapter, did not attend the Washington, D. C., affair.

The article further reported that the group expected to return home on May 13, 1972, and dig a "Bomb Crater" in front of a Greenville church. It was noted that services would be held in the crater adjacent to the Evangelistic Temple Church, 200 Hudson Street.

Jewish Defense League

The Jewish Defense League is a militant organization which has a history of harassing Soviet diplomats and establishments in protest of the alleged mistreatment of Jews in the Soviet Union. A rally is scheduled for Lafayette Park from 7:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. to protest the treatment of Jews in the Soviet Union and to remind the President prior to his trip to the Soviet Union of this treatment. Approximately 200 persons are expected to attend the rally. [redacted]

Cuban Independence Day

A rally to celebrate Cuban Independence Day sponsored by several Cuban exile organizations is scheduled between noon and 6:00 p.m. Demonstrators will assemble at the Ellipse at noon, march via Constitution Avenue to the Capitol and then return to the Pan American Union building at 17th and Constitution Avenue by way of the Ellipse. Approximately 4,000 persons are estimated to take part in this rally. [redacted]

March for Victory Rally

The U. S. March for Victory Committee, a group headed by Dr. Carl McIntire, is sponsoring a rally and march to call for victory in Vietnam. Participants will assemble at 11:00 a.m.

"People's March"

The Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) and the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) and other supporting groups are sponsoring a demonstration to protest the "escalation" of the war in Vietnam. Demonstrators are scheduled to assemble at the Ellipse at 11:00 a.m. and march to the Capitol for a rally at 1:00 p.m. The route of the march will be via Constitution Avenue. It is anticipated that this rally will last until 5:00 or 6:00 p.m. We have no firm figures for attendance. Sponsors have indicated they would be happy if "tens of thousands" attend. A survey of public transportation indicates that these facilities may bring as many as 10,000 persons from out-of-state to the demonstration. [redacted]

For the information of the Bureau and New York, the 5/11/72 issue of the Memphis "Commercial Appeal", a daily newspaper published in Memphis, Tennessee, contained an article on page 41 entitled "State Strange, Props Familiar" by THOMAS BEVIER. According to this article, the ITT Corporation's Annual Meeting of Stockholders was held in Memphis, Tennessee, on 5/10/72. A demonstration by approximately 50 anti-war demonstrators was held in the vicinity of the Sheraton-Peabody Hotel during the course of the stockholders meeting. The demonstrators carried signs charging ITT with contributing to the war in Vietnam. A Franciscan Priest, Rev. DALE OLINE, representing the Clergy and Laymen Concerned, presented two proposals at the stockholders meeting to curtail ITT manufacture of items used in warfare. These proposals were soundly defeated. Rev. OLINE appeared before the demonstrators.

For the information of the Bureau and New York, information regarding the demonstration was submitted to the Bureau and New York by Memphis on 5/10/72 in a teletype captioned, Demonstration Sponsored by Memphis Peace and Freedom Council on 5/10/72 at Memphis, Tennessee, Protesting U. S. Participation in War in Southeast Asia and War Profiteering.

No information was developed by the Memphis Office indicating that representatives of CALC planned on participating in the demonstration at Memphis other than as noted above.

3 - ENCLOSURE

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED
475 RIVERSIDE DRIVE, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10027 212-749-8518

Dear Friend:

This is how President Nixon is ending the war as we go to press in late April:

> 4 Aircraft carriers with hundreds of planes are stationed off the coast of Vietnam, along with
> 10 Destroyers
> 2 Heavy Cruisers
> Dozens of support vessels with ammunition and other supplies

Four years after promising to get the U.S. out of Southeast Asia, Nixon has ordered bombings more massive than ever before. Under the hoax of protecting American troop withdrawals, Haiphong and Hanoi are being brutally pounded.

Clergy & Laymen Concerned reacted at once to this latest monstrous assault by helping to organize the May 4 Moratorium, and by recruiting people to come to Washington on May 10 and 11 to urge the president and other elected officials to end the war.

Long recognizing the lie that the war is ending, CALC has in recent months launched several new campaigns. AMERICAN REPORT RADIO is a four-minute, six-day-a-week program that is heard on more than 300 stations around the country. With heavy emphasis on the continuing war and the distortion of American priorities both abroad and at home, speakers have included Dr. Robert McAfee Brown, John Gardner, Father John Sheerin, Donald Luce and Fred Branfman.

Another program, "Unsell the War" has been a marked success. We have been given free advertising material worth more than a million dollars. Radio and TV spots, contributed by men and women in advertising agencies, have been placed - without charge - on more than 100 television and 400 radio stations, including "The Today Show" and "The Dick Cavett Show" in a major West Coast city. Other ads, also donated, have appeared in such diverse publications as Business Week, Playboy, and Soul.

On April 18, we launched a national campaign against a major military contractor. Honeywell, Inc., is the largest producer of anti-personnel (anti-person) weapons, which have resulted in death, injury, and homelessness for tens of thousands of Indo-Chinese. Honeywell has replaced Dow Chemical Co. as the maker of the war's most heinous and immoral weaponry. We also attend stockholders' meetings of four major corporations which are heavy suppliers of the instruments of war, urging them to end their role in the killing.

For Clergy & Laymen to conduct and expand its program, every ounce of strength and imagination we can develop is required. Financial support is also essential. We invite you to join us, with as large a contribution as you can make. Please send it today. The bombs must be stopped...the war must be ended.

Sincerely yours,

PUBLISHES "American Report," a unique weekly that covers the war in Southeast Asia, the movement at home, Third World politics, and the political implications of our individual moral and religious commitments.

SPONSORS "American Report Radio," a comprehensive daily radio analysis of developments affecting our society, presented by experts in the form of 4-minute radio spots heard on nearly 1,000 stations across the country.

PUBLISHES and distributes posters and billboards opposing the war.

PUBLISHES and distributes books and pamphlets on the war, with 125 titles now available. Included are two which CALC authored, "In the Name of America", a book on war crimes, and "Military Chaplains: From Religious Military to a Military Religion."

ORGANIZES conferences, national and local, with broad representation of the religious community who are working for peace.

BUILDS demonstrations and activities around Christmas, Chanukah, Thanksgiving and other religious holidays, involving people in a witness of their concern about the war and its victims.

HAS PLAYED an important role in the "Set the Date" campaign, an inter-denominational move to end the war. It has worked with the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice and other peace groups on major demonstrations in Washington and elsewhere.

HELPS to support men of conscience who have left the country and/or U.S. military service, and who presently live in Sweden.

MAINTAINS a national staff of 18, and funds an additional 25 locally-based field staff.

CALC's future needs and directions include: employing seminary interns to work on programs relating to the war and religious institutional investments, work on a national amnesty campaign, expanding local groups and field staff, doubling the radio stations carrying "American Report Radio", building a network of Third World correspondents for American Report newspaper.

The present and future program of CALC are evidence of the organization's ability to take leadership in the struggle against the war and to redirect our national energies. Past financial support to CALC has shown the public's confidence in that leadership. Continued financial support is needed even more in the period ahead. Please use the coupon on the back to send your gift.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed an anti-war demonstration held in Chicago at the Civic Center Plaza on October 13, 1971. Sponsors included the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC), Chicago Peace Council and the CALC.

CONFIDENTIAL

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED

Speakers called for continuing resistance to the war and they claimed that the wage price freeze proved that the Nixon Administration is trying to force the nations workers to bear the economic burden of the war. Approximately 150 persons participated in the demonstration which started at noon and ended at 2:10 p.m. There were no incidents and no arrests.

The NPAC was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people, including labor unions, GIs, and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics. The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Chicago Peace Council is a coalition of anti-war and anti-draft organizations in the Chicago area.

On November 19, 1971, Special Agents of the FBI at Washington, D.C. observed participants in the "Daily Death Toll Project". On that date, at 9:30 a.m., a group of about 65 persons from the Madison, Wisconsin, Chicago and Indiana areas gathered at a church in the vicinity of 4th and Carolina Avenue, S.E. Washington, D.C. At approximately 2:30 p.m. the group dressed in robes with faces painted white began to march to the White House and at 4:00 p.m. arrived at the White House and marched in front of the building for 25 minutes when more than half of the group layed down in the entrance of the west gate. Shortly thereafter, an official for the U.S. Park Police advised those lying in the entrance that they were in violation of the law and that the group had five minutes to disperse or be arrested. Subsequently about 37 persons were arrested. All arrests were completed shortly after 5:00 p.m. and the group dispersed without further incidents. (U)

The "Chicago Sun Times" issue of April 19, 1972, page 54 reflected that the CALC "an international anti-war group" had announced that it had started a national campaign aimed at forcing Honeywell, Incorporated, to stop manufacturing fragmentation bombs used in the Southeast Asia war. The article reflected that the Reverend Martin Deppe, Chairman of the Chicago Chapter of the CALC and Associate Pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Evanston, had held a press conference to make the announcement. It was shown that a similar announcement had been made at the organization's New York City headquarters. It was shown that the CALC activities locally would concentrate on showing the public all Honeywell's activities in the war and meet with corporation officials. (U)

On April 29, 1972, a silent vigil in protest of the war in Vietnam was held by representatives of the North Shore Community of the CALC and the North Shore Women for Peace from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the main entrance to the Glenview Naval Air Station. Approximately 70 to 80 people represented these two groups. Ten members of the group, accompanied by the Reverend William Hogan conducted a guerilla theater play. The group requested permission to enter the base to plant some trees, however, permission was denied by naval authorities. There were no incidents and no arrests.

The "Chicago Daily News" issue of May 9, 1972, reflected that anti-war demonstrators were on the Eisenhower Expressway in Chicago on May 9, 1972. It was stated that five autos were used to block off Loop bound traffic in all but one lane of the Eisenhower Expressway just past the U.S. Post Office at the height of the morning rush hour. The blockade started at about 7:30 a.m. May 9 and by 8:10 a.m. nine individuals had been arrested in connection with the blockade. The article reflected that those arrested were all from the CALC. The article identified the following persons as having been arrested:

Special Agents of the FBI observed a group who were identified as belonging to the CALC assembled at the AME Church, Washington, D.C. at 9:30 a.m. on May 16, 1972. The group numbered approximately 300 and they passed out a news release that indicated the CALC had come to Washington, D.C. to persuade Congress to end the war in Southeast Asia. It was also shown that the group intended to remain in Washington at least three days and that individuals were present from as far away as Chicago.

The group remained at the church until 12:30 p.m. when they left individually for the Capitol. Eventually, approximately 200 individuals entered the Rotunda area of the Capitol and these individuals were told that the Rotunda was closed to the public at 4:00 p.m. Those individuals who did not subsequently leave were arrested.

[redacted] on this date two unidentified representatives of the CALC had made a presentation at Immaculate Heart of Mary High School, Westchester, Illinois. Slides were shown, as were films dealing with the war in Vietnam. The presentation lasted about one hour and was given a number of times to various groups at the school. The presentation was allegedly very much anti-administration and anti-American.

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED (CALC)

[redacted] Honeywell, Incorporated, [redacted] advised on June 1, 1972, that the Clergy and Laymen Concerned group had exerted considerable pressure on Honeywell, Incorporated, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in connection with the annual stockholders' meeting held in Minneapolis on April 26, 1972. According to [redacted] this group was highly active for some weeks preceding April 26, 1972, by conducting antiwar demonstrations, holding meetings, disseminating literature and in general, propagandizing the ill effects of Honeywell, Incorporated war production. He recalled that the CALC held an antiwar march in St. Paul, Minnesota, late in March, 1972, in which about 200 Twin City clergymen, seminarians and laymen participated in an antiwar protest during Holy Week.

He further informed that on April 6, 1972, James H. Binger, Chairman of the Board of Honeywell, Incorporated; and two other top Honeywell officials met with four national leaders of the CALC in Minneapolis. Honeywell officials met with Richard R. Fernandez of New York City, Executive Director of Clergy and Laymen Concerned; Richard A. Falk, professor of international law at Princeton University and two other CALC leaders. The purpose of the meeting was to attempt to have Honeywell disclose its defense contracts and to name a committee to study the manner in which peacetime conversion could be introduced. The CALC officials filed three resolutions with the Board for inclusion in the corporation's proxy statement. Discussion was also had relative to the format of the forth-coming annual stockholders' meeting.

A newspaper release in the April 19, 1972, issue of the Minneapolis Star was captioned, "Campaign seeks to dissuade Honeywell from weapons field." This release indicated that a nationwide campaign to persuade Honeywell, Incorporated, to stop making antipersonnel weapons was introduced on April 18, 1972, by the Minnesota Clergy and Laymen Concerned. In a related development, Honeywell officials claimed it had made only five of the twelve weapons attributed to the company by the antiwar group. Members of the CALC stated that the "supreme goal" of the groups' campaign was "to get Honeywell to publicly announce it will cease and desist the manufacture of antipersonnel weapons used in Southeast Asia, by their stockholders' meeting in 1973.

105-172166 - 269

The Minneapolis Star is a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The Minnesota Clergy and Laymen Concerned was incorporated in the State of Minnesota in February, 1968.

Its purpose is to promote responsible action of clergy and lay citizens directed to bring the Vietnam War to a sane and peaceful end and towards the eradication of those conditions which obstruct world peace. Its local office, a branch of the organization of CALC is located at 122 West Franklin Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

A news item appearing in the Minnesota Daily on April 24, 1972, stated that a group of 80 antiwar demonstrators participated in a rally on April 21, 1972, sponsored by the Clergy and Laymen Concerned. The rally occurred at the new Federal Building in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and the principal speaker was Reverend Vincent Hawkinson of Grace University Lutheran Church in Minneapolis, The demonstration was conducted in a peaceful manner.

The Minnesota Daily is a daily student newspaper of the University of Minnesota published in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

A news release in the Minnesota Daily on April 27, 1972, states that Reverend Robert McAffee Brown, Dean of the Stanford University School of Theology, gave a sermon on April 24, 1972, at the Hennepin Avenue United Methodist Church in Minneapolis. He spoke to a congregation of about 300 persons on the subject of corporate responsibility.

Brown spoke principally concerning the ill effects of war production by Honeywell, Incorporated and was quoted as saying "We must accompany our plea to stockholders with a plea to ourselves." Brown called for a reversal of Honeywell's tendency to "beat plowshares into swords and pruning hooks into spears." This affair was sponsored by the Minnesota CALC.

On April 26, 1972, [redacted] advised that the CALC would actively participate in the annual stockholders' meeting held at the Minneapolis Auditorium on April 26, 1972. A group of about 15 to 20 persons remained outside of the auditorium at the entrance immediately proceding the opening of the meeting at 2:00 p.m., and demonstrated at the entrance for a period of about 45 minutes. They protested against Honeywell by carrying signs, reciting poetry, conducting skits and other peaceful-type activities. Much of the outside demonstration was led by Robert McAffee Brown. Only qualified persons were permitted in the auditorium to attend the stockholders' meeting. There appeared to be at least one half dozen representing the CALC group in the auditorium. Through a prearranged agreement with Honeywell officials, the meeting was opened in the auditorium with a prayer by Sister Mary Luke Tobin of the National Office of the CALC. During the meeting, which was conducted in an orderly fashion, several spokesmen for the CALC and other church groups read speeches condemning the war in Vietnam and Honeywell's contribution. There was no apparent attempt to obstruct the meeting by any of the persons within the auditorium and the stockholders' meeting terminated at about 5:00 p.m., in an orderly manner.

A column appearing in the Minneapolis Tribune on May 30, 1972, was captioned, "30 protest Honeywell war policies." The item stated that about 30 persons gathered on May 29, 1972, outside the homes of two officials of Honeywell, Incorporated, to pray for a change in the corporation's policy. They went to the homes of James H. Binger, Chairman of the Board, and Stephen F. Keating, President of Honeywell, Incorporated. Neither Binger nor Keating were home on the occasion, however, the group conducted prayers and proceeded with their demonstration nevertheless. The affair was sponsored by the Minnesota CALC which was described as the local chapter of the national antiwar organization of the CALC.

The Minneapolis Tribune is a daily newspaper published in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED

Several Minneapolis confidential informants and sources who are completely familiar with the membership and activities of radical revolutionaries and other subversive or violence-prone elements in the Minnesota area, all advised, during the course of this inquiry that the local CALC is not infiltrated, or controlled by any of these mentioned elements. These same sources stated that they know of no individuals within the local organization who were known to them to be affiliated with subversive elements.

Re Louisville letter and LHM to the Bureau dated 1/3/72.

On 12/21/71, at 7:15 PM approximately 200 white predominately young male and female marchers participated in a candlelight march through downtown Louisville. The march was sponsored by CALC and was meant to recognize the deaths being caused by the Vietnam War. At a service after the march, 300 candles were lit at a Louisville church symbolizing the number of people who die daily in the war. CALC had obtained a parade permit for the march and there were no arrests or incidents associated with the march.

Between the period of 12/22/71, and 4/18/72, the CALC was not active in any public demonstrations or marches and they did not voice their opinion on the war in Vietnam or any other national problem to the various news medias in the Louisville, Kentucky area. Clergy and Laymen Concerned

On 4/19/72, CALC sponsored a peaceful demonstration in front of the New Federal Building, Louisville, Kentucky. Approximately 250 people attended the demonstration. The Reverend FREDERICK DAVID BANKS, JR., coordinator of the CALC of Kentucky read a long litany to which the demonstrators responded. The litany touched on the war issue, suffering of American Indians and Negroes, the draft, conflicts between American scientists and industrialists, academic freedom, freedom of the press and the oppression of various minority groups.

After the half-hour reading, leaflets were distributed at various points throughout the city urging persons to do something visible today to express your conviction that this war should be ended. The suggestions in the leaflet were peaceful ways to resolve the war. Some of the suggestions were: write your congressman and senators; work for a presidential candidate who favors peace; plan meetings in your home, church or school to discuss what you can do to work for peace.

On 4/26/72, CALC announced that it was going to take part in a national campaign to force Honeywell, Inc. to stop making anti-personnel weapons for use in the Southeast Asia war. CALC advised that the campaign against Honeywell's production of anti-personnel weapons is in association with all 37 local chapters of the national CALC.

On 5/13/72, an anti-war rally was held at a local church in Louisville, Kentucky. The purpose of the rally was to speak out against NIXON's mining of Vietnam's harbors and to boycott the Honeywell Corporation. CALC of Kentucky was one of the organizations to have speakers at the rally. The rally was peaceful and orderly.

On 7/29/72, 8/5/72, 8/12/72, 8/19/72, CALC picketed in front of two Louisville stores to protest the selling of Honeywell Inc. photographic equipment. The picketing was peaceful and was a part of CALC's effort to halt Honeywell's anti-personnel bomb manufacturing.

The demonstrations, rallies and picketing that have been sponsored or co-sponsored by the CALC of Kentucky, have been peaceful in nature and no incidents or arrests have resulted from these demonstrations. The CALC of Kentucky has not advocated overthrow of the United States Government or participated in any violent or militant activities.

In the event that the Kentucky chapter of the CALC engages in any pertinent activity in the future, the Bureau and New York will be appropriately advised.

CLERGY AND LAYMEN
CONCERNED OF KENTUCKIANA (CLCK)
INTERNAL SECURITY -
REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

The Clergy and Laymen Concerned of Kentuckiana (CLCK) is the Kentucky branch of the National Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC). The CALC is described as a group of clergy and laymen who originally formed an organization because of their concern with the war in Vietnam. The group now concerns itself with matters other than the Vietnam War, including economics, prison reform, social and religious reform, etc.

[redacted]

On December 22, 1971, the Courier-Journal, a Louisville, Kentucky, area newspaper, indicated in one of their articles that several hundred persons took part in a candlelight march through downtown Louisville on the evening of December 21, 1971, which began at Founder's Square, Louisville, Kentucky. The march was sponsored by the Clergy and Laymen Concerned of Kentuckiana and was meant to recognize the deaths caused by the Vietnam War. At 124001

a service after the march, 300 candles were lit at the Cathedral of the Assumption, a downtown Louisville Catholic Cathedral, symbolizing the number of people who die daily in the Vietnam war. (There were no arrests or incidents associated with the march.)

Between the period of December 22, 1971, and April 18, 1972, the CLCK was not active in any public demonstrations or marches and they did not voice their opinion on the war in Vietnam or any other national problem to the various news medias in the Louisville, Kentucky, area.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

On April 20, 1972, the Courier-Journal indicated in one of its articles that on April 19, 1972, CLCK sponsored a peaceful demonstration in front of the New Federal Building, Louisville, Kentucky. Approximately 250 people attended the demonstration. The Reverend Frederick David-Banks, Jr., coordinator of the CALC of Kentucky read a long litany to which the demonstrators responded. The litany touched on the war issues, suffering of American Indians, . and Negroes, the draft, conflicts between American scientists and industrialists, academic freedom, freedom of the press and the oppression of various minority groups.

The suggestions in the leaflet were peaceful ways to resolve the wars. Some of the suggestions were: write your congressman and senators; work for a presidential candidate who favors peace; plan meetings in your home, church or school to discuss what you can do to work for peace.

On April 27, 1972, the Courier-Journal published the following information:

CLERGY AND LAYMEN
CONCERNED OF KENTUCKIANA
(CLCK)

On April 26, 1972, the CLCK announced that it was going to take part in a national campaign to force Honeywell, Incorporated, to stop making anti-personnel weapons for use in the Southeast Asia war. CLCK advised that the campaign against Honeywell's production of anti-personnel weapons is in association with all 37 local chapters of the national CALC. Churches that own Honeywell stock will be asked to sell all but enough shares to allow them to send representatives to stockholder meetings.

[redacted]

On August 13, and 20, 1972, the Courier-Journal contained articles which indicated that on July 29, 1972, August 5, 1972, August 12, 1972, and August 19, 1972, CALC of Kentucky picketed in front of two Louisville stores to protest selling of Honeywell, Incorporated, photographic equipment. The picketing was peaceful and was a part of CALC's effort to halt Honeywell's anti-personnel bomb manufacturing.

The demonstrations, rallies and picketing that have been sponsored or co-sponsored by the CALC of Kentucky, in the Kentucky area, have been peaceful in nature and no incidents or arrests have resulted from these demonstrations. A PCPJ press released dated March 1, 1971 described the PCPJ as being headquartered in Washington D.C. and consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive, non-violent, civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.(U)

C. Statement of Purpose

Clergy and Laymen Concerned is an association of national and local groups formed in response to the United States action in Southeast Asia. Its primary goal is the ending of the Indo-China War and the demilitarization of American life. It seeks to change those values which corrupt America's public policy, foreign and domestic. CALC brings religious witness to bear on such policy and enables religious communities to become effective agents of social change. The committee pursues this program through education and direct action. (U)

Special Agents of the FBI observed a group who were identified as belonging to the CALC assembled at the AME Church, Washington D.C. at 9:30 AM, on May 16, 1972. The group numbered approximately 300 and they passed out news release that indicated the CALC had come to Washington D.C. to persuade Congress to end the war in Southeast Asia. It was also shown that the group intended to remain in Washington at least three days and that individuals were present from as far away as Chicago. The group remained at the church until 12:30 PM when they left individually for the Capitol. Eventually approximately 200 individuals entered the Rotunda area of the Capitol and these individuals were told that the Rotunda was closed to the public at 4:00 PM. Those individuals who did not subsequently leave were arrested. (U)

b7C

[redacted] on May 24, 1972 advised that on this date two unidentified representatives of the CALC had made a presentation at Immaculate Heart of Mary High School, Westchester, Illinois. Slides were shown, as were films dealing with the war in Vietnam. The presentation lasted about one hour and was given a number of times to various groups at the school. The presentation was allegedly very much anti-administration and anti-American. (U)

B. Kentucky

The following information was contributed by the Louisville Office of the FBI on September 12, 1972:

On April 26, 1972, CALC announced that it was going to take part in a national campaign to force Honeywell, Incorporated to stop making anti-personnel weapons for use in the Southeast Asia war. CALC advised that the campaign against Honeywell's production of anti-personnel weapons is in association with all 37 local chapters of the national CALC. (U)

On May 13, 1972 an anti-war rally was held at a local church in Louisville, Kentucky. The purpose of the rally was to speak out against NIXON's mining of Vietnam's harbors and to boycott the Honeywell Corporation. CALC of Kentucky was one of the organizations to have speakers at the rally. The rally was peaceful and orderly. (U)

On July 29, 1972, August 5, 1972, August 12, 1972 August 19, 1972, CALC picketed in front of two Louisville stores to protest the selling of Honeywell Incorporated photographic equipment. The picketing was peaceful and was a part of CALC's effort to halt Honeywell's anti-personnel bomb manufacturing. (U)

C. Minnesota

[redacted] Honeywell Incorporated, Minneapolis, Minnesota, advised on June 1, 1972 that the Clergy and Laymen Concerned group had exerted considerable pressure on Honeywell Incorporated, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in connection with the annual stockholders' meeting held in Minneapolis on April 26, 1972. According to [redacted] this group was highly active for some weeks preceding April 26, 1972, by conducting antiwar demonstrations, holding meetings, disseminating literature and in general, propagandizing the ill effects of Honeywell, Incorporated, war production. He recalled that the CALC held an antiwar march in St. Paul, Minnesota, late in March, 1972, in which about 200 Twin City clergymen, seminarians and laymen participated in an antiwar protest during Holy Week. (U)

A news item appearing in the Minnesota Daily on April 24, 1972, stated that a group of 80 antiwar demonstrators participated in a rally on April 21, 1972 sponsored by the Clergy and Laymen Concerned. The rally occurred at the new Federal Building in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and the principal speaker was Reverend VINCENT HAWKINSON of Grace University Lutheran Church in Minneapolis. The demonstration was conducted in a peaceful manner. (U)

The Minnesota Daily is a daily student newspaper of the University of Minnesota published in Minneapolis, Minnesota. (U)

A news release in the Minnesota Daily on April 27, 1972 states that Reverend ROBERT MC AFFEE BROWN, Dean of the Stanford University School of Theology, gave a sermon on April 24, 1972, at the Hennepin Avenue United Methodist Church in Minneapolis. He spoke to a congregation of about 300 persons on the subject of corporate responsibility. BROWN spoke principally concerning the ill effects of war production by Honeywell, Incorporated and was quoted as saying "We must accompany our plea to stockholders with a plea to ourselves". BROWN called for a reversal of Honeywell's tendency to "beat plowshares into swords and pruning hooks into spears". This affair was sponsored by the Minnesota CALC. (U)

On April 26, 1972 [redacted] advised that the CALC would actively participate in the annual stockholders' meeting held at the Minneapolis Auditorium on April 26, 1972. A group of about 15 to 20 persons remained outside of the auditorium at the entrance immediately proceding the opening of the meeting at 2:00 PM, and demonstrated at the entrance for a period of about 45 minutes. They protested against Honeywell by carrying signs, reciting poetry, conducting skits and other peaceful-type activities. Much of the outside demonstration was led by ROBERT MC AFFEE BROWN. Only qualified persons were permitted in the auditorium to attend the stockholders' meeting. There appeared to be at least one half dozen representing the

CALC group in the auditorium. Through a prearranged agreement with Honeywell officials, the meeting was opened in the auditorium with a prayer by Sister MARY LUKE TOBIN of the National Office of the CALC. During the meeting, which was conducted in an orderly fashion, several spokesmen for the CALC and other church groups read speeches condemming the war in Vietnam and Honeywell's contribution. There was no apparent attempt to obstruct the meeting by any of the persons within the auditorium and the stockholders' meeting terminated at about 5:00 PM. in an orderly manner. (U)

A column appearing in the Minneapolis Tribune on May 30, 1972, was captioned, "30 protest Honeywell war policies". The item stated that about 30 persons gathered on May 29, 1972, outside the homes of two officials of Honeywell, Incorporated, to pray for a change in the corporation's policy. They went to the homes of JAMES H. BINGER, Chairman of the Board, and STEPHEN F. KEATING, President of Honeywell, Incorporated. Neither BINGER nor KEATING were home on the occasion, however, the group conducted prayers and proceeded with their demonstrations nevertheless. The affair was sponsored by the Minnesota CALC which was described as the local chapter of the national antiwar organization of the CALC. (U)

D. South Carolina

On April 15, 1972 a "Walk for Life" was initiated. It was sponsored by the South Carolina clergy and Laity Concerned. The walk covered the distance from Greenville, South Carolina to Columbia, South Carolina. The purpose of this walk was to dramatize demands for United States withdrawal from Southeast Asia. The leader and coordinator of this march was Reverend MICHAEL F. KANEY, of the Greenville, South Carolina Chapter of CALC. When KANEY arrived at the South Carolina State Capitol grounds, April 22, 1972 he was observed by SAS of the FBI leading a group of about 150 protesters. A number of these marchers were carrying posters protesting the draft and the war in Vietnam. A rally was held on these grounds and later removed to St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Columbia, South Carolina because of inclement weather. No incidents or arrests took place. (U)

The above information concerning this march was carried by local South Carolina papers, specifically the Greenville Piedmont. (U)

On May 4, 1972 [redacted] Federal Building, Greenville, South Carolina advised that on that date thirteen members of CALC demonstrated in front of the Federal Building. They displayed anti-war placards and handed out membership applications for the Greenville CALC. (U)

An article in the May 11, 1972 issue of the Greenville Piedmont, a Greenville South Carolina daily newspaper, reported that six Greenville members of CALC were among demonstrators at PCPJ rally in Washington D.C. (U)

On May 11, 1972 [redacted] Honeywell Electronic Data Processing, 820 East Washington Street, Greenville, South Carolina, advised that a group of six to ten CALC members had picketed his office on April 26, 1972, May 3, 1972 and May 10, 1972. He said the group carried signs and distributed leaflets expressing opposition to the firms manufacturing of war material. (U)

E. Tennessee

The May 11, 1972 issue of the Memphis "Commercial Appeal", a daily newspaper published in Memphis, Tennessee, contained an article entitled, "State Strange Props Familiar" by THOMAS BEVIER. According to this article, the International Telegraph and Telephone Corporation's (ITT) annual meeting of stockholders held in Memphis, Tennessee on May 10, 1972 was picketed by about fifty anti-war demonstrators protesting ITT's contributions to the Vietnam War effort. At this demonstration a Franciscan priest, Reverend DALE OLINE, representing CALC, presented two proposals to curtail ITT's manufacturing of items used in warfare. (U)

Weatherman, formerly a faction of SDS, controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

RYM, a pro-Communist revolutionary youth organization was organized in 1969, first as a faction within the SDS, then as a separate group with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. RYM was unsuccessful in attracting support and by mid-1970, it was practically defunct.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

[redacted]

The PCPJ has described itself as being headquartered at 1029 Vermont Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., and as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

[redacted]

The Indo-China Peace Campaign (IPC) is an ad hoc group of war resistors that was organized as an educational and action program designed to keep the Vietnam War primary in the public consciousness through the November, 1972, Presidential election.

C O N F I D E N T I A L ROME 0274

SUBJECT: AMERICAN ANTI-WAR CLERGYMEN VISIT ROME

[redacted] INFORMED US JAN 12 THAT GROUP OF SIX PROMINENT AMERICAN CLERGYMEN ARRIVED ROME JAN 7 FROM NEW YORK ON MISSION, AS THEY ANNOUNCED TO PRESS ON DEPARTURE, TO PRESENT PROTEST TO POPE ABOUT AMERICAN CONDUCT OF VIET-NAM WAR AND TO GIVE POPE GIFT OF CANDLESTICK MADE FROM US BOMB WHICH FELL ON HANOI. GROUP CONSISTED OF HARVEY COX, HARVARD UNIVERSITY; BISHOP JAMES ARMSTRONG, METHODIST CHURCH; RABBI LEONARD BEERMAN, LOS ANGELES; BISHOP ROBERT D. WITT, EPISCOPALIAN; DR. ROBERT MCAFEE BROWN, PRESBYTERIAN, STANFORD UNIVERSITY; AND SISTER MARY LUKE TOBIN, CATHOLIC SISTERS OF LORETO. [redacted] UNDERSTANDS GROUP WAS IN CONTACT WITH VATICAN'S COMMISSION FOR JUSTICE AND PEACE, BUT DOUBTS SERIOUSLY THAT THEY MANAGED TO SEE POPE, AS HE FEELS THEY ASSUREDLY WOULD HAVE SOUGHT PRESS AFTER AUDIENCE. [redacted] CHECKED WITH HOTEL COLUMBUS, WHERE GROUP HAD BEEN STAYING, AND WAS TOLD BY DESK CLERK THAT THEY HAD DEPARTED MORNING JAN 12. [redacted] SAID, OF COURSE, GROUP COULD HAVE GONE TO OTHER HOTEL BUT SUSPECTED THEY DEPARTED ROME.

[redacted] individuals who are aware of and familiar with CALC activities in South Carolina, and who advised that the Greenville, South Carolina, Chapter of CALC was dormant and inactive during the period from mid-May, 1972, until October 15, 1972.

The Chapter of Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC) has publicly described itself as an inter-religious and anti-war group. In 1971, it publicly claimed to have been in existence for five years with offices in New York City, New York.

ORIGIN OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

The above-mentioned sources have advised the Greenville, South Carolina, Chapter of Clergy and Laymen Concerned, also known as Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam was active throughout the State of South Carolina from October 10, 1970, until March 23, 1972, under the leadership of Reverend Michael E. Kaney, a local Catholic priest. In March, 1972, leadership of the group was taken over by Jim and Leslie Turner who reside at 20 Waccamah Circle, Greenville, South Carolina. MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

An article in the July 9, 1972, issue of the "Greenville News" published daily at Greenville, S. C., indicated that four college students representing the "National Priorities Caravan," sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC)

[redacted] Honeywell Electronic Data Processing, 820 East Washington Street, Greenville, South Carolina, during the period from May 11, 1972, until October 3, 1972, concerning the picketing and distribution of leaflets by members of captioned group in the vicinity of this firm. On each occasion, these individuals indicated that the activity on the part of CALC had diminished during the latter part of May, 1972, and finally was discontinued in June, 1972.

On October 3, 1972, [redacted] of Honeywell in the Greenville area, indicated that he and other members of Honeywell had handled the activities of CALC by merely ignoring them and, since June, 1972, the organization has taken no action toward this firm. He said there have been no protests, no leaflets, no letters to the editor, no newspaper articles and no activity in the front of camera stores handling Honeywell products. He said he believed that members of this organization finally realized that they were ineffective in their protest against Honeywell and discontinued same.

He said he knows of no activities currently being carried on in the Greenville area by CALC members.

On October 25, 1972, [redacted]ised that the Furman University Chapter of CALC held a film showing on the campus at Greenville, South Carolina, on the evening of October 24, 1972. A 16 millimeter film entitled, "Village by Village" and concerning the bombing of North Vietnam by the United States was shown. The film was allegedly made by four Americans who visited North Vietnam, in May, 1972, and ran for approximately half an hour. It was advertised on campus as "a report on the bombing of North Vietnam". b7C

Paul Duane Deane, Jr., a junior at Furman and Chairman of the Furman Chapter of CALC, presided at the affair and about sixteen to twenty individuals, mostly Furman students attended. Anti-war and anti-draft literature was passed out to those in attendance.

After the film showing, efforts to hold a discussion period failed as all but one of the audience left the meeting. Deane announced that Asian Emphasis Week would be held at Furman starting November 12, 1972, and solicited contributions to the Vietnamese Children's Fund Drive that would be held during that week.

During the period from October 30, 1972, through February 27, 1973, [redacted]ised that no further activities on the part of CALC at Furman had come to his attention. b7C

An article in the March 2, 1973, issue of The Greenville News, a newspaper published daily at Greenville, South Carolina, reported that members of the Greenville Chapter of CALC plan to picket Graham Photo Supply, Incorporated, at 100 West Camperdown Way and 1110 North Pleasantburg Drive, in Greenville during March 19-23, 1973, to protest their selling Honeywell and Pentax equipment "because Honeywell is in the business of making antipersonnel weapons". Mrs. Leslie Turner, CALC representative, said a week-long vigil during regular store hours is planned.

Mrs. Turner further stated that CALC members plan to pass out literature in front of the two stores explaining how stock in Honeywell goes to finance the manufacture of bombs, ammunition and other military equipment.

Mrs. Turner said CALC is also encouraging citizens to write their congressman urging them to support legislation curbing the President's warmaking powers. She said CALC is also requesting citizens to contribute to the efforts to rebuild north and south Vietnam.

A review has been made of the programs and activities pursued by captioned organization since October, 1968. It is noted that this organization is primarily a pacifist group. It has continuously participated in non-violent anti-war, anti-draft peace-oriented activities. Now that the Vietnam War has ended and compulsory conscription into the armed services has been abolished, the impetus to mount any meaningful drive has been taken away. The only real cause that CALC seems to have at the present time is the repatriation of deserters, draft-dodgers and fugitive peace protestors. This cause, in and of itself, is not subversive or radical. It is espoused by many legitimate organizations and individuals. It is, therefore, recommended that no further investigation be conducted into the activities of this organization either by the NYO or any auxiliary office. Any field office presently conducting active investigation in this matter is instructed to discontinue, UACB.

Title: CLERGY AND LAITY CONCERNED

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY-REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

Synopsis: CALC is located at 475 Riverside Drive, NYC, NY, and its co-directors are Reverend RICHARD FERNANDEZ and TRUDI YOUNG. Its main purpose is the demilitarizing of the American life style by way of education and direct action. CALC has concentrated its efforts at bringing an end to the war in Southeast Asia. It is currently seeking the repatriation without reprisals of US deserters, draft-dodgers and fugitive war protestors who fled the country.

PCPJ is self-described as a broad coalition of local and national organizations including the Communist Party, USA, committed to conducting ing demonstrations aimed at ending the war in Indochina, and poverty, racism and injustice at home. Its National Office is located at 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City (NYC).

C. Statement of Purpose

CALC is an association of national and local groups formed in response to the United States action in Southeast Asia. Its primary goal is to bring a total end to the Indochina War and to demilitarize American life. It seeks to change those values which corrupt America's public policy, foreign and domestic. CALC brings religious witness to bear on such policy and enables religious communities to become effective agents of social change. The committee pursues this program through education and direct action.

II. ACTIVITIES OF CALC

On January 19, 1973, Special Agents (SAS) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed a Mass and demonstration sponsored by CALC condemning United States involvement in Southeast Asia; the further purpose of this peace demonstration was to demand total withdrawal of United States troops from Vietnam. In order to dramatize their point, representatives of CALC called for individuals to go to Washington, D. C., on January 20, 1973, to participate in demonstrations opposing President NIXON's inauguration on that date.

Reverend DANIEL BERRIGAN, well known anti-war activist priest, gave the sermon at the above peace mass, which was celebrated at the Church of the Holy Family, 315 East 47th Street, NYC, NY. Immediately after this Mass, a rally for peace was held at DAG HAMMASKOLD PLAZA, directly across the street from Holy Family Church. Two noted speakers at this rally were EILEEN EAGAN and Sister MARY LUKE TOBIN, both of whom were introduced as national directors of CALC.

In the February 6, 1973 edition of the "New York Times," a daily NY newspaper, there was an article headlined, "AMNESTY STRATEGY PARLEY SET FOR PARIS." This article reported, among other things, that TOD ENSIGN, a lawyer for the Safe Return Committee (SRC), announced at a news conference on February 5, 1973 in NYC that representatives from CALC would be present at a strategy meeting to be heldin Paris, France from February 19-February 22, 1973. The purpose of this meeting was to form strategy to move Congress to pass legislation calling for exiled military deserters and draft-dodgers as well as fugitive anti-war protestors, to be allowed back into this country without reprisals.

Safe Return Committee (SRC) is composed of Citizens Committee of Inquiry (CCI) activists who plan to assist some of the many self-retired veterans (deserters) who wish to return home.

CCI has been characterized as an anti-war group with a New Left political orientation seeking a national inquest into the war crimes question.

The February 6, 1973 edition of the "Staten Island Advance," a Staten Island, NY, daily newspaper, reported that DEBBIE PECK, from Springfield, Massachusetts is to walk 400 miles from her home to Washington, D. C. Miss PECK is being sponsored by CALC. The purpose of this walk is to raise money for BAC MAI, Hanoi's largest hospital, destroyed by United States bombing in December, 1972.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

New Left sources in the NY area were contacted in March and April, 1973 regarding the activity of CALC, but could offer no additional positive information.

15. DETAILS:

A. ON 12 DEC 74, PHIL S. MCWILLIAMS, MAJOR, COMMANDER, 6510 SECURITY POLICE SQUADRON (SP), EDWARDS AFB, CA (EAFB), ADVISED HE HAD BEEN GIVEN A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE CONCERNING PLANNED DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE B-1 BOMBER FIRST FLIGHT. (EVALUATION: A-1, MAJ PHIL S. MCWILLIAMS, 6510 SECURITY POLICE, EDWARDS AFB, CA).

B. ON 12 DEC 74, A REVIEW OF THE ABOVE MENTIONED ARTICLE REVEALED IT HAD BEEN PRINTED IN THE 11 DEC 74 EDITION OF THE DAILY LEDGER-GAZETTE, PUBLISHED IN LANCASTER, CA. THE ARTICLE IS ENTITLED, "PLANNED DEMONSTRATION AGAINST B1 FLIGHT." IN ESSENCE, THE ARTICLE IS THE RESULT OF AN INTERVIEW OF THE PERSON C. T.

WEBER. HE IS IDENTIFIED AS A SPOKESMAN FOR THE AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICES COMMITTEE (AND THE CLERGY AND LAITY CONCERNED). HE STATES THESE GROUPS WILL MAKE AN EFFORT TO STOP THE B-1 PROGRAM AND STOP THE FIRST FLIGHT, IF POSSIBLE. FURTHER HE RELATES THE GROUP WILL PROTEST ANYWHERE TEST OFFICIALS WILL BE STAYING, CONCENTRATING ON THE FLIGHT TEST CENTER ITSELF. HE TERMED THE PROTEST "LOW-KEY" BUT DIDN'T RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY OF SOMEONE PUTTING HIS BODY IN FRONT OF THE WHEELS TO STOP THE PROPOSED FLIGHT. THE ARTICLE MENTIONS THAT A MEMBER OF THE GROUP DID JUST THAT AT THE B-1 ROLLOUT LAST OCTOBER. (THIS WAS REPORTED IN IR 1-624-1258-74). THE ARTICLE FURTHER REFLECTS THAT ABOUT 35 OR 50 PEOPLE ARE WORKING ON THE PALMDALE DEMONSTRATION PLANNING. IT CONCLUDES THAT ALTHOUGH ROCKWELL IS BEING VERY SECRETIVE CONCERNING THE PLANS FOR THE FIRST FLIGHT, PROTESTERS WOULD BE THERE THE DAY OF THE FLIGHT ANYWAY. (EVALUATION: A-1, SA MICHAEL E. CONLON, DET 1801, EDWARDS AFB, CA).

C. ON 13 DEC 74, BURNEY L. FEDERSPILL, SUPERVISOR, PROTECTIVE SERVICES, ROCKWELL INTERNATIONAL CORP., PLANT 42, PALMDALE, CA, ADVISED SA CONLON THAT HE WAS AWARE OF THE NEWSPAPER ARTICLE. IN ADDITION, HE PROVIDED A COPY OF A PAMPHLET FROM THE NATIONAL

PEACE CONVERSION CAMPAIGN, "STOP THE B-1 BOMBER," WHICH HAD BEEN GIVEN TO THE DEPENDENT SON OF A ROCKWELL EMPLOYEE WHO TURNED IT OVER TO ROCKWELL SUPERVISORY PERSONNEL. A LARGE PART OF THE PAMPHLET SETS FORTH ARGUMENTS THAT MONEY TO BE SPENT ON THE B-1 PROGRAM COULD BE BETTER USED IN OTHER NON-MILITARY RELATED AREAS. OF SIGNIFICANCE THE PAMPHLET SOLICITS THE HELP OF THOSE IN AGREEMENT WITH THEIR AIMS TO COME TO THE FIRST FLIGHT. THREE DIFFERENT NUMBERS ARE PROVIDED FOR PERSONS TO CALL WHO COULD COME TO PALMDALE ON SHORT NOTICE. THIS SECTION ALSO MENTIONS A PROPOSED DATE OF THE FIRST FLIGHT, 17 DEC 74. FEDERSPILL REFLECTED THIS DATE WAS SIGNIFICANT AS, AT ONE TIME, IT WAS THE TARGET DATE FOR THE FIRST FLIGHT. HE OPINED IT WAS SIGNIFICANT THAT THIS GROUP SHOULD BE AWARE OF THAT DATE AS IT WAS NOT PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE, ALTHOUGH NOT CLASSIFIED. FEDERSPILL FURTHER RELATED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED INFORMATION FROM A FORMER ROCKWELL EMPLOYEE TO THE EFFECT THAT THIS EMPLOYEE HAD OVERHEARD A CONVERSATION AMONG 4 OR 5 PERSONS WHO STATED THEY WOULD KNOW WHEN THE FIRST FLIGHT WOULD OCCUR AS THEY HAD TWO INFORMANTS ON THE FLIGHT LINE (PALMDALE), ONE IN THE CANTEEN, ONE IN THE HELICOPTER AND TWO AT THE EDWARDS TEST PILOT SCHOOL. (EVALUATION C-3).

D. ON 13 DEC 74, DANIEL VINEY, CAPT, AFPRO, ROCKWELL PLANT 42, PALMDALE, CA, ADVISED HE WAS AWARE OF THE INFORMATION CONCERNING A POSSIBLE PROTEST . FURTHER, HE DID NOT KNOW WHEN THE FIRST FLIGHT WOULD OCCUR AS IT DEPENDED ON THE SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF TESTS WHICH HAD TO BE CONDUCTED PRIOR TO FIRST FLIGHT. (EVALUATION: B-2, CAPT VINEY)

E. ON 13 DEC 74, FRED MORGAN, INFORMATION OFFICER SPO, B-1, WRIGHT-PATTERSON AFB. OH, ADVISED SA CONLON, TELEPHONICALLY, THAT A ROCKWELL PUBLIC RELATIONS MAN IN LOS ANGELES HAD RECEIVED A TELEPHONE CALL ON 12 DEC 74 FROM PHILADELPHIA, PA. THE MAN WHO CALLED IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS TERRY PROVANO (NFI) WHO WOULD NOT DIVULGE WHAT ORGANIZATION HE WAS AFFILIATED, STATING ONLY THAT HE WAS ONLY LOOKING FOR INFORMATION. HE POSED THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS: WHERE WILL THE B-1 TAKE OFF FROM WHERE WILL IT LAND WHEN WILL THE MISSION OCCUR WHO LONG WILL IT LAST WHEN WILL/ THE PRESS AND PUBLIC BE NOTIFIED AT WHAT ALTITUDE WILL THE AIRCRAFT FLY MORGAN RELATED THAT ALL THE INDIVIDUAL WAS TOLD WAS THAT THE FLIGHT WOULD LEAVE FROM PALMDALE AND LAND AT EDWARDS AFB. (EVALUATION: C-3, FRED MORGAN).

F. ON 13 DEC 74, ARVEL R. PONTON, [redacted]

[redacted] ADVISED SA CONLON THAT HE WAS FORMERLY EMPLOYED BY ROCKWELL INTERNATIONAL. HE RELATED THAT ON THE EVENING OF 11 DEC 74, WHILE WORKING AS A COOK FOR THE MOOSE LODGE. [redacted] HE OVERHEARD A PART OF A CONVERSATION AMONG 4 OR 5 INDIVIDUALS, WHOM HE DID NOT SEE, TO THE EFFECT THAT THEY WOULD KNOW WHEN FIRST FLIGHT WOULD OCCUR AS THEY HAD INFORMANTS IN THE DIFFERENT LOCATIONS ENUMERATED IN PARAGRAPH C, ABOVE. PONTON STATED THIS WAS ALL HE HEARD OF THE CONVERSATION. HE DID NOT KNOW WITH WHICH ORGANIZATION THE INDIVIDUALS MIGHT BE AFFILIATED. (EVALUATION F-6).

G. ON 13 DEC 74, THE ABOVE INFORMATION WAS COORDINATED WITH FBI, LANCASTER, CA, WHO ADVISED THEY HAD SEEN THE NEWSPAPER ARTICLE, HOWEVER, HAD NO OTHER INFORMATIN (EVALUATION: A-1).

H. ON 13 DEC 74, SA CONLON COORDINATED THE ABOVE INFORMATION WITH JOHN FAINE AND JOHN POLLARD, INTELLIGENCE DIVISION, LOS ANGELES COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT, ANTELOPE VALLEY SUBSTATION, LANCASTER, CA, THEY ADVISED THE SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT WAS AWARE OF A POSSIBLE PLANNED PROTEST THROUGH THE ARTICLE IN THE NEWSPAPER AND INFORMATION PROVIDED BY FEDERSPILL. THEY RELATED THEY WOULD ATTEMPT TO ASCERTAIN THE SPECIFIC INTENTIONS OF THE PROTESTERS,

PALMDALE, CA. (A-2, DOI: 19 JAN 76, DPOA: 19 JAN 76, EDWARDS AFB, CA.)

COMMENTS OF THE APPROVING OFFICER: IT IS SOMEWHAT IRONICAL THAT THE ARTICLE CONCERNING DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE B-1 APPEARED ONLY 2 DAYS AFTER ANOTHER B-1 WAS FORMALLY INTRODUCED TO THE PUBLIC. OF SIGNIFICANCE, THE ROLL-OUT OF THE FIRST B-1 AND ITS SUBSEQUENT FIRST FLIGHT WERE BOTH OCCASIONS FOR DEMONSTRATIONS, AS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED IN IIR'S REFERENCED, BY THE ABOVE MENTIONED GROUPS. PERHAPS ONE REASON FOR THE TOTAL LACK OF ACTIVITY ON 16 JAN 76 WAS THAT THE EVENT WAS NOT PUBLICIZED. ATTENDANCE WAS BY INVITATION ONLY. A SECOND POSSIBLE EXPLANATION MAY INVOLVE A CHANGE OF STRATEGY BY THE GROUPS. THEIR PREVIOUS EFFORTS AT AF PLANT 42, PRODUCED VERY MINIMAL RESULTS. TO OUR KNOWLEDGE, THEY GARNERED VERY LITTLE TO NO LOCAL SUPPORT. OF IMPORT, MOST INDIVIDUALS IN THE AREA DEPEND, IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER, ON THE AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY IN PALMDALE OR EDWARDS AFB FOR THEIR LIVILIHOOD. SO TOO, MOST REALIZE THAT A GOOD PART OF THE FUTURE OF THE AREA DEPENDS ON AN AFFIRMATIVE DECISION TO PRODUCE THE B-1. COGNIZANT OF THIS, THE AMERICAN FRIENDS' SERVICE COMMITTEE, ETC. PROBABLY FEEL THEY CAN MAKE MORE INROADS IN LARGER CITIES WHERE THE ECONOMIC STRATA IS DIVERSE TO

C. ON 18 JAN 76, THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE, WHICH IS QUOTED VERBATIM BELOW, APPEARED UNDER THE HEADING "THE NATION" AMONG OTHER CAPSULIZED STORIES ON PAGE 2 OF THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, SUNDAY EDITION: "DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE AIR FORCE'S B-1 BOMBER PROJECT ARE PLANNED TUESDAY IN 33 CITIES, INCLUDING SAN FRANCISCO, SPOKANE, PORTLAND, MIAMI, AND WASHINGTON, DC. THE PROTESTS WILL BE COORDINATED BY GROUPS SEEKING CUTS IN MILITARY SPENDING, AMONG THEM THE AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE AND CLERGY AND LAITY CONCERNED. OPPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM SAID IF CONGRESS FUNDED FULL PRODUCTION OF THE MANNED PLANE, COSTS COULD RUN TO $92 BILLION OVER 30 YEARS. RUTH REEBER, A FRIENDS SPOKESMAN, SAID THE BOMBER PROJECT COULD MEAN UP TO 70,000 JOBS, 20,000 OF THEM IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, BUT THAT THE GOVERNMENT COULD CREATE TWICE AS MANY JOBS BY SPENDING THE MONEY ON SOCIAL PROGRAMS OR DISTRIBUTING IT IN TAX CUTS." (SOURCE: DOCUMENTARY: LOS ANGELES TIMES, VOLUME XCV, 18 JAN 76, CIRCULATION 1,244,713, PUBLISHED BY A DIVISION OF TIMES MIRROR, TIMES MIRROR SQUARE, LOS ANGELES, CA: 3)

D. ON 19 JAN 76, CURTIS HOLT, SA FBI, LANCASTER, CA, ADVISED HE HAD RECEIVED NO INFORMATION CONCERNING ANY PLANNED ACTIVITIES ON THE PART OF THE GROUPS MENTIONED ABOVE AT EDWARDS AFB OR AF PLANT 42,

INCLUDE THE POCP. COMMANDER, AIR FORCE FLIGHT TEST CENTER BRIEFED ON ABOVE INFORMATION. THIS DOCUMENT SHOULD BE DESTROYED IN NOT LATER THAN 30 DAYS IAW AFR 124-13.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT June 30, 1978

CLERGY AND LAITY CONCERNED

In response to your name check request, the central files of this Bureau reveal the following which may relate to the subject of your inquiry.

The Clergy and Laity Concerned (CALC) was the subject of an internal security-type investigation conducted by this Bureau until 1973, at which time it was closed as its activities no longer met the criterion for such investigations.

The CALC was described as an association of national and local groups formed in 1965 in response to the United States action in Southeast Asia. Its primary goal was to bring a total end to the Indochina War and to demilitarize American life. It sought to change those values which corrupt American public policy, foreign and domestic. The CALC sought the repatriation without reprisals of United States deserters, draftdodgers and fugitive war protestors. The CALC headquarters was located at 475 Riverside Drive, New York, New York.
